Teachers Visit Plants in City

State Readies New Evidence Against Fuller

Trial Judge's Ruling Awaited in Murder Case at Phenix City

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—State's attorneys waited for a trial judge to decide today whether they can produce new testimony to bolster a witness' story that Albert Fuller fled the scene of A. L. Patterson's murder.

Circuit Judge J. Russell McElroy promised a decision today, the seventh day of Fuller's trial for killing the Alabama attorney general nominee.

The prosecution sought to show that the state's key witness, cab driver James R. Taylor, of Columbus, Ga., didn't wait until a $1,000 reward had been posted before volunteering his story. Taylor said he saw Fuller speed away in a waiting car shortly after Patterson was slain at Phenix City last June 18.

Rather, the state promised to prove, if given a chance, that Taylor radioed his cab company office a short time after the shooting that "Albert Fuller did it."

Defense attorneys tried to bring out that the witness said nothing until after the reward had been offered by the state. They said testimony about the radio message to the cab company was inadmissible as evidence.

City Instructors Get An Inside Look at Manufacturing

The tables were turned on Marion teachers Monday.

Instead of instructing, they were instructed— in the ways of business and industry of Marion.

Some 360 teachers in the city's public and parochial schools took guided tours of industrial plants and businesses. They were shown how truck axles and power shovels are made, how news reports come in over an Associated Press wire, the makings of rubber hose and refrigerator units, and how telephone calls are directed through a maze of wires.

Russians Claim U.S. Lagging in Weapons Race

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet union today heralded the approach of Red Army Day with a claim that it is leading the United States in the production of both atomic and hydrogen weapons.

Moscow radio carried a statement by Lt. Gen. Sergei S. Shatilov made in connection with the celebration to be held tomorrow.

Shatilov said the Soviet army and navy were equipped with "every kind of weapon and the most modern military equipment."

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov claimed in a speech before the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) on Feb. 8 that the United States was lagging behind the Soviet Union in the production of the hydrogen bomb.

Southeast Asia Military Force Aim of Parley

Economic Assistance Also Key Point for Bangkok Conference

BANGKOK (AP)—Delegates assembling today for the Southeast Asia Treaty conference centered their attention on two main topics—setting up a joint military force for Southeast Asia and economic help for countries threatened by Communist infiltration.

Both projects took on urgent meaning with reports of Communist activities in Laos and in Red China's Yunnan province, both just outside Thailand, the host country.

Parley Opens Wednesday

The conference of eight nations opens tomorrow. Represented are the United States, Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand the Philippines, Pakistan and Thailand.

None of the delegates already on hand would discuss their plans publicly. They conferred country by country today.

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles arrived shortly after noon from Manila.

"Our purpose here is peace and freedom and I am confident that we shall find ways to make that purpose one that will prevail," he said in a statement.

Noting that he had arrived on Washington's Birthday, he said Washington "laid down principles which he hoped would enable us to preserve our freedom and, by conduct and example, help others also to be free. We have tried to live up to those ideals and, indeed, that is why we are here today."

Delegations Meet Dulles

Philippine, Australian, New Zealand and Thai delegations went to Bangkok Airport, along with Thai Premier Pibulsonggram, to meet Dulles.

Pibulsonggram said the projected military organization for Southeast Asia probably would be delegated to a committee of military men.

The slight, graying field marshal told newsmen that Thai dissidents in Red China have built up an army of 20,000 men in China's Yunnan province and would attack if the Communists decide to invade Thailand. He said his country would need help if invaded.

Australian External Affairs Minister Richard Casey arrived yesterday after visiting Laos. He said the political situation in Laos, Cambodia and South Viet Nam

Ike Requests Approval for Highway Bill

House Asked To Pass Road Program as Aid In Case of Atom Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, asking Congress to approve his 101-billion-dollar highway program, said today the country must have a road network permitting people to move out of target areas quickly in case of atomic attack.

In an 1,800-word special message, the President cited the danger of "deadly congestion" during atomic warfare as one of four reasons for "action, comprehensive and quick and forward-looking" for highway improvement.

Other Points

He also said:

1. Better highways would save lives, reducing the annual toll of 36,000 killed and more than a million injured. Eisenhower said the economic loss from accidents is estimated at $4,300,000,000 a year.

2. Poor roads add to the cost of operating vehicles over them—as much as one-cent a mile per vehicle for a total yearly cost of 5 billion dollars. He said the higher road transportation costs are reflected in the cost of goods and are paid ultimately by the individual consumer.

3. The country is growing and, as population and national output increase, highway development and improvement must be increased. Unless this is done, Eisenhower said, "existing traffic jams only faintly foreshadow those of 10 years hence."

The Eisenhower program, as set out in the message, followed the general lines of a report drafted last month by an advisory committee headed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Avoids Controversial Sections

However, the President passed over lightly two of the most highly controversial features of the report.

In advance for the submission of the message, Senate Democratic leaders had declared their opposition to a number of key features of the Clay report.

These included:

1. A plan for a 30-year bond issue to be financed by a federal highway corporation that would finance a planned 40,000 mile interstate highway network with a total interest cost of 11½ billion dollars.

2. A plan to reimburse states

Manslaughter Charge Set in Death of Man

Police Chief Thomas B. Coon said this afternoon that manslaughter charges will be filed against Daniel Lloyd David, 32, of 1060 Uncapher Ave. in connection with the Sunday night death of Frank D. Markley, 55, of 1130 Keener Ave.

David has been held by police pending results of an autopsy in Columbus. He allegedly engaged in a fist fight with Markley Saturday night.

Markley was found unconscious in front of the Oakland Grill and died Sunday night in Marion General Hospital.

Witnesses told police the two men became engaged in an argument in the grill and moved outside for a fist fight. Markley was knocked to the pavement and apparently suffered a fractured skull, police said.

SUB'S BATTERY EXPLODES, KILLING FIVE SAILORS. U.S. Navy submarine Pomodon is shown after explosion and fire which killed five sailors in San Francisco Naval shipyard. The Pomodon, which had been undergoing a four-month repair job, was recharging batteries for sea trials when one of the batteries exploded. In photo above, compressor lines are being used to force gas from the sub.

Navy Resumes Hunt for Two Victims in Fire

Bodies of 3 Recovered, Pair Missing; Admiral Orders Inquiry on Sub

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Navy search team will attempt to reenter the wrecked battery room of the submarine Pomodon today to recover the bodies of two men trapped there by explosion and fire Sunday night.

Three other bodies have been recovered.

Five men—three servicemen and two civilians—are under treatment for burns and injuries.

The Pomodon was undergoing overhaul at San Francisco Naval Shipyard.

Rear Adm. George L. Russell, commander of the Pacific Fleet submarine force, orderd a court of inquiry.

The Navy said the explosions presumably were caused by excessive hydrogen gas released by charging storage batteries.

The Navy said the known dead are Torpedoman Charles Chester Mattson, 21, Pablo, Mont.; Sonar Seaman William Joel Woods, 19, son of Mrs. Georgia Woods, St. Louis; Torpedoman Charles B. Bowman, 20, son of Mrs. Laura Bowman, Atlantic City.

Missing and presumed dead are Chief Electrician's Mate Carl Donald Barckhoff, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Davis, Shawnee, Ohio; Lt. (j.g.) John Joseph Hackett, 25, San Diego.

Second in '55 Series

Atomic Test Blast Shakes Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An atomic tower explosion—second shot of the 1955 nuclear test series—jolted Las Vegas just before dawn today.

The "George Shot"—this was Washington's birthday—rattled windows and awoke many persons not already up in this city of 50,000, which lies 75 miles southeast of the Atomic Energy Commission's test site.

There were no reports of damage.

Seventeen congressmen and 200 military observers watched the detonation of the nuclear device, set off from the top of a 300-foot tower on Yucca Flat at 5:45 a.m.

Visible in Los Angeles

The orange flash was visible in Los Angeles 275 airline miles to the southwest.

Observers at the AEC control point, about 10 miles from the blast, felt two distinct shocks as the sound wave rumbled around the low mountains circling the flat. Two shocks also were felt in Las Vegas.

Doors and windows shook at the police station and Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital, but there was no breakage as in the 1951 and 1952 tests here. Today's shot was the 33rd at Nevada test site.

The atomic cloud rose over 20,000 feet and an ice cap formed on top of the familiar mushroom.

Within a half hour winds began shearing the cloud and it was blown east and southeast in the general direction of St. George, Utah, and northern Arizona.

Pilots' Warned

The Civil Aeronautics Authority warned all pilots planning flights within 300 miles of Grand Canyon Airport to check first with CAA. Southern Utah and a large rectangular segment of Arizona were closed to aircraft from 15,000 to 26,000 feet much of the morning.

The congressmen viewed the test from News Nob, at least 8 miles from the tower. They were the first of three groups of legislators

Rain, Thawing Forces Scioto Over Its Banks

The Scioto River has spilled over its banks at LaRue and is expected to be near the overflow stage near Prospect during the day. Heavy rains and thawing were responsible for the overflow.

A total of 1.13 inches of rain has fallen here in the last three days.

Columbus weather bureau forecasters predicted that the river would only spill out over low lying farmlands and that damage would be small in this county and downstream.

At Prospect, the water is expected to crest at nine feet, one feet below flood stage.

Some farmlands south of Columbus probably will be flooded as the crest passes there tomorrow

Construction Starts On Drive-In Bank

Construction of the Marion County Bank's new drive-in branch on the site of the old YMCA building on S. State St. got under way today.

Harold W. Steward of the Steward Construction Co. said tentative completion date for the one-story building and large parking lot is June 1.

The building will be 15 feet by 46 feet with full basement and will face south from the north side of the lot. The remainder of the lot will be paved for use as a parking lot for bank customers.

Air Force Hits Fleet of 200 Armed Junks

Warplanes Also Rip Red Bases in Taishans, Claim Heavy Damage

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek's warplanes today attacked more than 200 armed motorized junks about 12½ miles north of Nanchishan Island and renewed their attacks on the Red buildup base on the Taishans, the Nationalist air force reported.

It was not immediately clear whether the Communist craft were the same that earlier today raised fears that the Reds were about to launch their long-expected attack on Nanchishan.

Destroy Gunboat

The air force said its planes had destroyed one gunboat of about 700 tons and five armed motorized junks. It also claimed damage to two other warships of an unspecified type and "a considerable number" of junks.

A communique said two waves of Nationalist planes hammered the Taishan Islands, destroying "many" military installations.

It was the second series of raids on the Taishans during the day. Nationalist planes roared over in four predawn waves and the air force claimed at least two vessels sunk and hits or possible hits on other craft.

About noon today, official Nationalist reports said Communist war vessels were heading toward Nanchishan and Nationalist planes and warships were rushing to engage them.

No Attack Reported

But there was no attack on Nanchishan and no immediate clash between Nationalists and Reds.

Nanchishan has been the northernmost outpost of Chiang's island chain off Red China since the Tachen evacuation. It is 120 miles north of Formosa, 20 miles off the mainland, and manned by about 5,000 Nationalist regulars and guerrillas.

There never has been any indication that the United tates might consider it among the related positions and territories deemed essential to the defense of Formosa and the Pescadores.

The Reds may be trying to learn U.S. intentions.

They did just that in the Tachen area.

They captured Yikiangshan and it appeared they were going to use it as a stepping stone to the Tachens, eight miles away.

What happened then is recent history. The Nationalists, who said they would have preferred to fight, pulled out under the protection of the U.S. 7th Fleet.

The Reds moved in when the Nationalists left, and boasted they liberated the islands.

There is speculation here the Communists feel a threatening

Marion School Given Award By Foundation

A "Principal School Award" was granted to Taft Junior High School in Marion by the Freedoms Foundation. The award was granted for material submitted to the foundation by Miss Leora Ankney, eighth grade history teacher.

Miss Ankney's entry was a description of methods used in her class to teach the fundamentals of citizenship to the students. Included in the program are movies, cartoons and other unusual teaching aids which are designed to impress the duties of citizenship on the pupils.

This is the second year Taft School has been granted an award. Last year the school was presented the George Washington Honor

Measure Faces Rough Road

GOP Leaders in House Predict Tax Cut Defeat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Halleck (R-Ind) said today he "certainly" would advise President Eisenhower to veto any tax bill including a Democratic plan for a $20-a-person income tax cut next Jan. 1.

Halleck, assistant House Republican leader, predicted, however, Republicans would defeat the tax-cutting proposal in a House floor scrap now set for Thursday.

Democratic sponsors of the move and some other key Republicans differed. They said they saw little chance that House members, after voting earlier for a $10,000-a-year pay hike for themselves, would kill a tax cut affecting every taxpayer.

Trouble Ahead in Senate

Whatever happens in the House, trouble loomed in the Senate for any tax cut move. Chairman Byrd (D-Va) of the Finance Committee renewed his opposition to tax reductions until the budget is balanced. Sen. George (D-Ga), senior member of the committee, termed the House move "unwise and unfortunate."

The House Ways and Means Committee voted 15-10 late yesterday to wrap the $20 tax cut into an administration bill. This measure would postpone for another year almost three billion dollars worth of tax reductions scheduled for April 1 in corporation income and excise taxes.

Would Slice Revenue

Halleck said in an interview that if Republicans cannot knock out the income tax cut, then they would oppose the entire bill. He said responsibility for killing the corporation and excise tax extensions—if the bill is defeated or vetoed—would rest with Democrats.

The Democratic proposal would give a $20 tax cut to each taxpayer and each dependent, chopping about two billion dollars from federal revenues over a full year.

Already, this proposal was cook-

Senators Seeking To Tie Matusow to Red Scheme

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harvey Matusow, terming himself a reformed "perpetual and habitual liar," faces more questioning today by senators probing his story that he has falsely branded hundreds of persons as Communists or pro-Reds.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee heard three hours of testimony by Matusow yesterday. Chairman Eastland (D-Miss) later told reporters he thinks the subcommittee is tackling something "deeper seated than just this witness."

"I think he's part of a plan—part of a shrewd scheme to get some folks who have been convicted out of trouble," Eastland said. He said that "of course" he meant 13 second-rank Communist leaders convicted of conspiracy.

On the basis of Matusow's sworn statements that he lied at the trial of the 13, their attorneys are ap-

Tops in 841 Awards

St. John's, Graham Cited By Freedoms Foundation

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) —. . . Evangelist Billy Graham and St. John's University of Brooklyn were hailed today by Freedoms Foundation for outstanding contributions to the American way of life during 1954.

The awards topped a list of 841 announced by the foundation at special George Washington's Birthday ceremonies at historic Valley Forge where America's first president spent the bitter Revolutionary War winter of 1777-78.

Flag-Draped Barn

In a flag-draped barn of colonial vintage the Foundation honored American citizens, organizations and schools "for their work in bringing about a better understanding" for the United States' kind of freedom.

Clifford F. Hood, president of the United States Steel Corp., handed out the awards to the top 25 winners, and distributed $14,000 in cash prizes. All told, the foundation will pay $31,000 to 1954 award winners, besides honoring 191 high schools. Secondary awards will be presented at regional ceremonies later this year.

Freedoms Foundation, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization, started its project to spread the story of American liberties in 1949. At that time, President Eisenhower, then head of Columbia University, gave out the awards.

Directions for Wallpaper Application Left by First President

By The Associated Press

George Washington believed in doing it himself. In at least two instances he left how-to-do-it instructions in his own handwriting.

His directions on how to paper a room and how to make home brew still are available. Although Washington's recipe for beer is not appropriate for modern do-it-yourself fans because of federal and state laws which have been passed since his time, it serves as a reminder that Mount Vernon belonged to an older self-contained economy.

SUCH BIG estates made many things for themselves that are now bought in stores. Washington's interest in such operations was indicated when he wrote out the beer recipe. It reads:

"To make small beer—

"Take a large sifter full of bran. Hops to your taste — Boil these 3 hours, then strain out 30 gallons into a cooler. Put in 3 gallons molasses while the beer is scalding hot or rather draw the molasses into the cooler and strain the beer on it while boiling hot. Let this stand till it is little more than blood warm. Then put in a quart of yeast. If the weather is very cold cover it over with a blanket and let it work in the cooler 24 hours, then put it into the cask. Leave the bung open until it is almost done working—Bottle it the day it was brewed."

The directions for papering a room read almost as if they had been prepared in a modern suburban residence. Washington wanted to paper the banqet room at Mount Vernon for a dinner in honor of the Marquis de Lafayette.

He ordered wall paper from France. A very modern touch was injected when he was unable to get a paper hanger in time to do the job before the banqet. And just like today's home owner he did the job himself, helped by his aid - de - camp and Lafayette. Martha Washington, like many wives before and since, bossed the job.

WASHINGTON was so pleased with the results that he sat down to record the directions. The Wallpaper Council has found the instructions among some of his old papers. They read:

"If the walls have been whitewashed (brush) over the glew. If not—simple and common paste is sufficient without any other mixture, but in either case, the paste must be made of the finest and best flour, free from lumps. The paste is to be made thick and may be thinned by putting water to it.

"The paste is to be put upon the paper and suffered to remain about five minutes to soak in before it is put up, then with a cloth press it against the wall, until all parts stick. If there be rinkles anywhere, put a large piece of paper thereon and then rub them out with cloth as before mentioned."

Thailand Prince Woos Japanese Chorus Girl

TOKYO (AP)—The newspaper Yomiuri today said Prince Tetepan of Thailand had fallen in love with one of Japan's "Atomic" dancing girls and proposed marriage.

The paper reported the 20-year-old son of Prince Panupan Yugara saw Miss Tokuko Sasame, 19, during the recent two-month Southeast Asia tour of the dancing group.

The prince promised not to take additional wives if she would accept his proposal, Yomiuri said. He asked for a reply by March 15.

The "Atomic Girls" are Japan's version of the Rockettes of New York's Rockefeller Center Music Hall.

UNION ACCEPTS CUTBACK

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP)—Workers at the Otis Eelevator Co. have voted to accept revised work standards, semority changes and bonus eliminations to keep the company's 100-year-old plant here. They are members of the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers. Company President L. A. Petersen said last month if costs weren't reduced the firm would have to shift the plant to the Midwest.

Sears Employes Own 1,472 Shares Of Stock in Firm

A $157,981 stake in Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s savings and profit sharing pension fund currently is held by the 35 employe-members of the fund in the local Sears store, L. F. Rentz, Sears manager, announced today.

Rentz explained that the local employe group has to its credit in the fund 1,472 shares of Sears stock plus a cash balance of $44,269. Based on a year-end market value of $77.25 per share for the Sears stock plus cash and miscellaneous investments, the group now has a total investment worth $175,981.

Started back in 1916, the Sears savings and profit sharing pension fund was created by the company to encourage thrift among its employes, to permit them to share in the company's profits, and to assist them in building a financial reserve to help provide for their eventual retirement.

The fund's total current assets now exceed $630,000,000. Of this amount, $94,000,000 represents deposits from the wages and salaries of the more than 123,000 employe-members of the fund.

The fund owns 26 per cent of Sears, Roebck and Co. stock and is the largest single stockholder of the company.

Ohio Senate Set To Okay Proposal

Statehouse Parking Garage Gets Nod

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Something over 200 years ago—tradition has it—George Washington got into a bit of a jam by cutting down a cherry tree. Today, apparently, 33 Ohio senators are going to authorize the destruction of dozens of trees in the State Capitol yard without a murmur.

The State Senate votes today—Washington's Birthday—on a bill to create a commission with power to build a huge parking garage under Capitol Square, around the edges of the 10-acre plot in downtown Columbus in which is located the Ohio Statehouse.

No Objectors

A Senate survey last night failed to turn up a single objector to the bill which will result in a "strip-mine" operation on the Statehouse yard for the construction of a 1,200-car underground garage

The bill's sponsor Sen. Robert R. Shaw (R-Franklin) said the trees now in the Statehouse yard could be saved and replanted—"if anybody wants them."

But, he added, "the soil isn't very good and the trees aren't in too good a shape. The plan is to replace all of them."

All through committee hearings on the bill designed to relieve the parking congestion in downtown Columbus, there has been no voice raised to question the need for the underground garage.

Public Good Stressed

If the bill also gets House approval, the Statehouse yard is due for a new look. State and city officials say it is for the public good.

The House scheduled a vote on a bill—endorsed by a number of civic and patriotic organizations—to require, rather than permit, the teaching of a number of basic subjects in Ohio schools. The subjects—like reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, Ohio history and the like—once were required.

An unexplained change in 1943 revised the law to say that the schools "may" teach basic subjects. Before it had said the schools "shall" teach the subjects. The change from "may" to "shall" is the bill's only aim.

The Senate last night approved and sent to the House a bill repealing the requirement that county recorders send to the tax commissioner a list of real estate transfers made "in contemplation of death." The sponsor, Sen. William H. Deddens (R-Hamilton;) said the attempt to block the loophole to escape the inheritance tax was unenforceable.

Other Tax Measures

The Senate passed and sent to the House two other measures dealing with taxation of inventories of merchandisers and manufacturers.

Meanwhile, the House speaker took action to "clear the decks" of less-important legislation before that body tackles the major issues of school problems, welfare issues and finances.

Speaker Roger Cloud, Logan County Republican, urged House committee chairmen, to set a heavy schedule of hearings on bills "not of major importance" to fill the gap before the big bills occupy legislators' attention.

The goal, Cloud told newsmen, is adjournment of the Legislature in "the very forepart of June."

'Favorable Response' Reported

Earlier, Senator Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens) told newsmen he has received a "favorable response" from two measures he sponsors to help small communities build sewage treatment plants. Mechem said many municipalities have declared they could not afford expensive treatment plants to comply with Ohio's stream anti-pollution law.

Mechem said his two bills would open the way for smaller Ohio communities to comply with the law. One would require the water pollution board to provide engineering and fiscal counsel to communities which say they cannot afford these services. The other would give the three state retirement systems the first chance to buy sewage plant retirement bonds.

The Senate Education Committee today holds its first hearing on a bill to make effective a previous legislative ban on high school fraternities and sororities.

Also up tonight is a third hearing by the House Commerce and Transportation Committee on a bill to grant public utility status to proposed cargo-hauling belt conveyors. The committee expects to hear the last of the proponents and the first of the opponents. This is the third time the belt conveyor people have bid for the right to condemn property for a right-of-way for the novel transportation system. Railroad opposition in the past always has stymied Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines, Inc., which proposes a 100-mile Cleveland-to-East Liverpool "rubber railroad" to haul iron ore and coal.

The Senate yesterday received three gubernatorial appointments for confirmation, including the appointment of Charles R. Koch of Van Wert to be a member of the state liquor board for a term ending in 1959.

Kennelly Seeks 3rd Term

Chicago's Mayor Battles Party Bosses in Primary

CHICAGO (AP)—A spirited struggle for Chicago's Democratic party leadership went to the voters today.

The balloting in the city'sh municipal primary will determine whether Mayor Martin H. Kennelly or the 50-member board of Democratic ward committeemen wields the real power of the party in Chicago.

The election will decide which candidates will represent both Democratic and Republican parties in the April 5 election for mayor, city clerk and city treasurer. It will also select most, and perhaps all, members of the 50-man City Council.

4-Man Race

Spotlighted is the contest of Mayor Kennelly, Cook County Clerk Richard J. Daley, Atty. Benjamin S. Adamowski and factory owner Clarence R. Balek for the Democratic mayoral nomination.

The major contestants are Kennelly, seeking his third four-year term, and Daley, champion of the thumping ward committeemen's majority of 48. Kennelly has two in his camp.

Daley, 52, as chairman of the Cook County Democratic Central Committee, is the de facto leader of the Chicago party organization.

It was the ward committeemen, whose roster is studded with names of veteran machine leaders such as Joseph Gill, Al Horan, Bill Connors, Barney Hodes and Tom Keane, who drafted Kennelly as their candidate in 1947, backed him again in 1951, and then dumped him this year because they did not consider him an organization asset.

Meets Challenge

The 67-year-old Kennelly met the verdict with a fiery challenge and a tireless campaign which would have done credit to any party warhorse. It has been a new role for Kennelly, who had shunned partisan politicking as to pass up party councils and endorsement of other candidates.

The mayor says the party regulars want to run the city "for themselves, not the people," and want to stamp out his gains in reducing spoils politics in city administration. He said they dumped him because he has refused to give party considerations priority over city welfare.

Kennelly, ably guided by County Assessor Frank Keenan, built up a citywide antimachine organization within a few weeks, putting 37 alderman candidates of his own into the field. He drafted Marion W. Isbell and Morris B. Sachs for clerk and treasurer. He fired city hall employes who wouldn't support him, and cut down drastically the advantage of Daley's old-line vote-harvesting corps.

About 900,000 Democratic votes are expected, compared with 387,000 in the 1954 primary.

A GOP primary vote tally of only 200,000 or so was forecast because the GOP mayoral nomination is an apparent shoo-in for Alderman Robert E. Merriam, 36, the Republican organization candidate. There is no contest for the GOP treasurer or clerk nominations

The average Americans drink about 17 gallons of beer a year.

GET WELL, SHERRY. Sherry Cassada, 7, and her mother, Mrs. Irene Cassada, view some of the cards and gifts she has received, in Cincinnati, from all parts of the country. Sherry received skin grafts from the body of a boy who died, in an effort to help her recover from burns suffered more than a year ago. Physicians report the grafts "took" and are hopeful for her recovery.

Federal Grand Jury To Probe Natvig Stories

Witness Repudiates Testimony in FCC Investigation of Lamb

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal grand jury is about to look into the sharply conflicting testimony of Mrs. Marie Natvig, a graying Miami Beach, Fla., divorcee who first linked publisher-broadcaster Edward Lamb with communism, but later switched her story completely around.

The latest development in the complex Lamb case came late yesterday with the announcement by Atty. Gen. Brownell that the Federal Communications Commission had handed the Justice Department a transcript of Mrs. Natvig's testimony. Brownell said a grand jury would begin an investigation next Monday.

Brownell said nothing about Kansas farmer Lowell Watson, a second turnabout witness in the Lamb case, which has been before FCC examiner Herbert Sharfman since last September. The FCC investigation of allegations that Lamb had past associations with Communists arose out of Lamb's application for renewal of a license to operate TV station WICU at Erie, Pa.

Lamb has denied all allegations against his loyalty and has termed the inquiry a frameup. He is a Toledo, Ohio, lawyer. Besides publishing the Erie Dispatch, he owns radio and TV properties in Florida and Ohio.

Like Mrs. Natvig, Watson testified against Lamb during the first phase of the FCC hearing last fall, but now claims his sworn testimony was false and that he was "coached" by commission personnel.

Mrs Natvig, described by examiner Sharfman as "a completely incredible witness," was released from subpoena as a witness yesterday. Sharfman has said he would disregard all her testimony.

Home Economics Class Aid in Landing Husband

CHICAGO (UP) — If a girl wants to go to college to get a degree, a husband and a high-paying job, her best bet is to study home economics.

Miss Louise Mojonnier, chairman of the home economics department at Illinois Institute of Technology, said a shortage of home economics teachers and dieticians has created unlimited job opportunities for graduates.

She added that a large number of home economists never use their degrees outside the home.

"More than half of the Illinois Tech home economics majors get married while they are still in school or shortly thereafter," she said.

"Perhaps the marriageability quotient is higher because home economists enjoy an added advantage of being better equipped to manage a home."

Larder Is Stocked But Not With Deer

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y. (UP) —Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Prudy have learned to "keep their head" for an emergency.

Recently, three carloads of game protectors descended on the Purday household and demanded to take a look into the refrigerator. It was filled with fresh meat. The protectors thought it didn't look like venison, but. . . .

"It's a yearling," Mrs. Purdy explained. "Would you like to see the head and skin?"

That was enough. The men told the Purdys someone had reported them to be butchering a doe. It was just Mr. Purdy cutting up a calf.

The 79-year-old writer said he wanted his homes to become museums "for the education of the people."

Union Merger Approval Seen

Oil, Chemical Groups To Ratify Proposal

CLEVELAND (AP) — A proposed constitution welding the CIO Oil and Chemical Workers into a single 250,000-member union will win approval in a joint convention opening next Moday, their leaders predict.

O. A. Knight, president of the oil workers, and Elwood D. Swisher, president of the United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers, both predicted easy passage of the merger.

The two union presidents met with their committees in separate pre-convention sessions yesterday.

Some 350 delegates, representing more than 130,000 oil workers, were expected to approve the merger at their own separate convention beginning Friday.

The chemical workers, with more than 100,000 members, voted for merger action at their convention last summer. A special convention, to be held here Saturday and Sunday, was expected to approve the proposed constitution.

CIO President Walter P. Reuther is scheduled to deliver a keynote address Monday at the joint convention opening.

Rutgers Expanding Teaching Services

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (UP) — Rutgers University's school of education is using a 25-year-old idea to make sure there are enough teachers to go around in the classrooms of 1960.

The problem of getting more and better teachers quicker is being solved by an enormously expanded field service course program that was initiated in 1929.

Last fall, the program enrolled 429 teacher students in 18 field service courses. Today, there are 46 field courses given in 30 cities in 14 New Jersey counties to more than 1,000 elementary and secondary school teachers.

The field service course, an old concept in teacher education, brings the school to the teachers. Local school districts supply the facilities and at least 20 students for each course. Rutgers provides the instructors.

"Take my word for it—this is the one you ought to drive—here's why"

—SAYS ED SULLIVAN

"With all my years on the Broadway beat and on television—and all my years of driving—I've never seen a show like this on the road before. Of course—I'm referring to this great new Mercury Montclair. Now—you've seen the dream cars that all the manufacturers have been showing. Well, here are lines right out of the future—and the best part of all is—you can drive this dream car today, and take five other people with you.

"For all its lower silhouette, you have plenty of room inside for six normal-sized people. And speaking of the inside—the Montclair's interiors are so luxurious, so beautiful, so different—you'll want to park it with the doors open just to show off the dazzling upholstery and trim colors and combinations. And when you're driving along, you know that all eyes will be riveted on its new design—from the recessed, hooded headlights, along the under-window panel that carries down the contrasting color from the roof, back to the dual exhausts built into the massive rear assembly.

"But you have to get behind the wheel and take it out on the open road to understand why its performance gets such rave reviews. It's not just that the new SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine delivers 198 horsepower. The most important thing is that you get more power where it counts—super acceleration at normal speed ranges where you do most of your driving.

"I could take the full hour of 'Toast of the Town' just giving you the lowdown on the new Mercury's eye-popping performance and the show would be a sensation. But here I am running out of space, without even mentioning the all-new Mercury Montereys and Customs, with their exciting 188-hp performance, new styling, new lower, longer lines. Tune in on this great new Mercury line for 1955 at your dealer's now—and I'm sure you'll give them your highest rating."

Washington's Farewell

Washington's warning in his Farewell Address against "permanent alliance" ("entangling alliances" was the phrase of Jefferson 4½ years later) is often stressed in Feb. 22 orations by those who call themselves "anti-internationalists."

The Father of His Country, in averring that "Europe has a set of primary interests which to us have none or a very remote relation," was considered at the time to be warning not only against a dangerous frame of mind but also against a specific danger. This was the wedge driven between Americans by the French Revolution.

All Americans had hailed the Revolution with joy at first, and Washington accepted the key of the Bastille, police fortress stormed by the Paris populace, as a "token of the victory gained by liberty." But as the French Revolution developed excess after excess, conservative America turned sharply against it while most Jeffersonians managed to keep some sympathy with it.

They denounced the Jay treaty with England as taking sides against our ally against England in our own Revolution. And Washington, appalled at the invective poured on his aged head, saw the house of America divided against itself.

He sent to Alexander Hamilton for comment a rough draft of what were to be his last words to his "friends and fellow citizens." Hamilton made a complete new draft, sent this back to Mt. Vernon for suggestions and incorporated some of these in his final draft.

Although the manuscript that Washington sent to the printer was all in his own handwriting, the style was Hamilton's, and there's no way of telling which of the Farewell Address ideas were originally Washingtonian and which Hamiltonian.

Our problems today differ from Washington's only in degree. Now, as then, we strive to safeguard our self-interest.

Only the frontiers have been changed.

We will succeed or fail in direct ratio to how wisely we use the influence which our growth to great stature has thrust upon us.

Ash Wednesday

One of the most solemn periods in the Christian calendar begins tomorrow. It is Ash Wednesday, which marks the advent of 40 days of Lent.

The Lenten period is a time of self-denial in most churches — a period commemorating the trials and tribulations of Jesus Christ which culminated in his crucifixion.

In many countries, today is a day for dietary and emotional splurge. The French call it Mardi Gras, which means literally Fat Tuesday.

In England it's a great day for pancakes, and pancake races for housewives are staged in various English communities.

In Germany the second day before Ash Wednesday is Rose Monday, the occasion for carnivals, parades and general merrymaking like our Halloween.

Actually, Lent is too significant an occasion to be ushered in lightheartedly. It should be a period for deep and sober reflection, which it doubtless will be this year in most parts of the free world.

While the 40 days of Lent are days to try the Christian soul, they are the forerunners of the Resurrection, the joy of Easter and the glory of a promised fulfilled.

Perfect Parenthood

A question raised when the Child Welfare League of America met in Chicago recently will go begging for an acceptable answer.

How perfect should the would-be parents of children placed for adoption be to get approval of social welfare workers and courts?

The question arises because of the understandable tendency to demand positive assurance in advance of competent care for adopted children, although there is no such assurance for the ordinary run of children.

The attempt to answer the question runs into complications when it is realized that competent parenthood cannot be judged by fixed standards set in advance — only by results that cannot be determined until long after the adopted child has been taken into a new family.

The way matters stand now, adopted children stand a better chance of having theoretically ideal homes than other children. But whether or not their practical chances are better is a moot question. It will stay that way until absolute standards of perfect parenthood can be determined in advance.

The Nickel Cup

Evidence is piling up that the nickel cup of coffee is destined to become a museum piece.

When coffee prices soared as high as $1.40 a pound last summer, restaurants and dining rooms which had not already done so quickly surrendered to the 10-cent cup.

Now that a hot war among distributors has been brewing across the country and prices have been forced down to a level of approximately 80 cents a pound, one wonders whether food dispensers will be as quick to follow suit.

You can bet your last nickel they won't because the odds are it will never buy another cup of coffee anyhow.

Knowland and the U.N.

By David Lawrence

Political Candidates Challenged To Take Stand

For some unexplained reason a rather sensational speech delivered in San Francisco last Friday afternoon by Sen. Knowland was not widely reported in the press.

When the Republican leader of the United States Senate issues to all candidates in the 1956 election —both for the presidency and for Congress—a challenge to make their position clear with respect to any future reliance on the United Nations by the American people, it would seem to be news of major importance.

After reviewing the facts about the Korean War wherein the United States "supplied 90 per cent of the manpower and better than 90 per cent of the resources," Knowland asks:

"Does this indicate that the United Nations is an effective instrument of collective security? The answer must come back in the negative.

"With that example, are you prepared to risk the future of our nation and the safety of our people upon the collective ability of the United Nations to function in the event of aggression? The answer likewise must be in the negative.

Has the time not come for a realistic appraisal of just what part the United Nations is qualified to play, and to stop kidding ourselves into believing it is something it is not, and in my judgment cannot be?"

KNOWLAND ASSERTS that the United Nations "could not be and should not be considered a basis for world government" because its members have no common heritage, and because nations "which sit on equal terms with those that have had long experience."

He then says that there are those who now urge the "admission of Communist China which was the aggressor in the Korean war," and that "this, together with the other Communist states, would give that system of tyranny 800 million people that they claim to speak for." The California senator thereupon proclaims his challenge as follows:

"As for me, as long as I have a voice or a vote in the Senate of the United States, I shall never consent to permitting the guarantees of freedom under our Constitution to be diluted or modified directly or indirectly by any organization having nations in powerful policy positions which have no appreciation of our respect for free institutions.

"Lest we be gradually edged into such a world order before we learn too late wherein we have been taken, I believe that every candidate for public office, executive, legislative or judicial, should be asked to give a forthright view upon this great public issue.

KNOWLAND THINKS the United Nations could perform useful service as "a forum wherein the views of the free world and the Communist world might be aired to the benefit of the people of the world, provided that there was assurance the debates in the General Assembly or the Security Council were receiving as widespread coverage behind the Iron Curtain as they do in the free nations of the world." The senator adds:

"Otherwise it (the United Nations) becomes a vast propaganda forum for the Communist world where in the point of view of the West the free world does not have the equal opportunity to get to the people of the Soviet Union and its satellites because of the strict censorship those governments exercise."

Knowland reminded his audience, moreover, that "the evidence was conclusive that the Soviet Union was not only giving moral support to Communist aggression in Korea, but was supplying MIG planes, tanks, artillery, ammunition and other weapons in equal violation of the U.N. resolution and the charter of the organization." Despite this, as he points out, "no steps were taken to expel the Soviet Union from the United Nations"

In the same speech the Republican leader draws attention to the arrogant boast by the Soviet Union that it had helped Red China, and he recalls that the Soviet representative in the U.N. "in effect defied the U.N. to do anything about it—and they did nothing."

THE CALIFORNIA senator stressed that "every member of the United Nations knows that the terms of the Korean armistice have been violated on numerous occasions," and he cites examples including the imprisonment of 15 members of the American air force. Then comes this startling declaration:

"There is strong reason to believe that there are at least several hundred additional U.N. and U.S. prisoners of war being held in violation of the terms of the armistice."

The foregoing would seem to be news of interest to the American people. The newspapers, which must depend daily on the selection of news made by the press associations at the point of origin, may well be curious as to why they didn't get a comprehensive report on it for either Saturday morning or afternoon editions, even though the speech was available in Washington in advance of delivery in San Francisco.

The February Blues

By MARK DANA

Along about this time in February, odd things happen to people. The calendars set down December, January and February as the winter months, but November and March often are in that mercury category.

Yet in March, people like to imagine that spring is near. In February, they are well weary of winter and yearning for hot days of July and August—just as they will long for February. In February, folks have lost the verve and push which the first chill days of winter gave them.

In February, they have had enough cool days to last them a long while, but more can be expected. It's a short month, but can seem extra long if one is in a hurry for crocuses and flower plantings. It's a month when men and women vexedly have to consult the weatherman before making auto trips or planning parties.

It's a time when a common cold latches on with slight encouragement, and lingers far over-long. It's a sort of last-phase testing of mankind's real preferences in weather, usually reporting on the examination that people just don't know what they want.

Yet even February ultimately passes, and the 28 days this year will give way to March and spring hopes with reasonable celerity unless folks hold back the month by fretting over it.

Some of our neighbors no doubt are worrying already about lawn-mowing and car-washings and the wild-Indian abandonment of playing children slated for summer, while no doubt a few hardy persons wish all 12 months of the year were February.

The people who don't go to church or lodge meetings because it is too cold will stay away presently because it is too hot, and find no genuine believers in either case. If November were a month of delightful preparation for winter, February usually brings a rebellious satiety, and the middle of February is much like middle age; it's a time of yearning in both directions.

Another advantage of having been a boy in a long-ago winter was that it was a lot easier to find pieces of coal for the snowman's eyes.

Our Heritage

Pivotal Importance of Far West

By Jay G. Hayden

The factor by all odds most influential in causing the Republicans to place their 1956 presidential nominating convention in San Francisco is the pivotal importance the Far West, and more especially the coastal states of California, Oregon and Washington, has assumed in national elections.

A second consideration, denied by Chairman Leonard Hall but undoubtedly persuasive among the committee rank and file, was that Chicago, the runner-up city, is the focal center of isolationist-McCarthyite opposition to the Eisenhower administration.

A seeming rush by the Democrats to set their convention in Chicago was twigged by many as an attempt to pressure the Republicans into accepting the same location.

Beginning with 1940, the two parties have been meeting in the same cities and on closely contiguous dates as a money-saving device and latterly television and radio broadcasters have pressed hard for continuance of that practice.

THE REPUBLICAN high command is not much worried about any right-wing third party movement but it doesn't see the sense of picking a convention site where a diversion in that line might be emphasized far beyond its actual significance.

The rising political importance of the West, in contrast, is very real. California's electoral vote rose between 1928 and 1952 from 13 to 32 — the latter figure tying it with Pennsylvania for second place among the states. All the other far western states are growing rapidly in population and consequent electoral and congressional influence.

It is significant to note the ups and downs of political allegiance in that region. From the time the Republican party was founded through 1928 one of its best stamping grounds was the Far West. But beginning in 1932 that section swung solidly to support of Franklin D. Roosevelt and clung mainly to the Democratic side nationally through the election of Truman in 1948.

But 1938, however, the Democratic hold on the West began to weaken as to congressional and local candidates and by 1952, Eisenhower carried every state in that region.

For example, as against the thin plurality of 17,000 by which Truman won California, Eisenhower's margin over Stevenson in 1952 was just under 700,000. Eisenhower's plurality in Oregon was 150,000, Washington 105,000. Utah, 60,000, Colorado 130,000, and so on through all the 11 states of the Coast areas.

CONGRESSIONALLY, the count of the Senate from the same 11 states, just after the 1928 election, was 13 Republicans to nine Democrats, and of the House 28 Republicans to four Democrats

Just before the 1938 election, the Senate representation of these same states was divided 19 Democratic to three Republican and the House 34 Democratic, five Republican and one Progressive.

As of the latter date, Washington, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming and Arizona were represented in Congress wholly by Democrats.

California's House membership was 15 Democrats to four Republicans and one Progressive and Oregon's two Democrats and one Republican.

The only Republicans left in the Senate from this entire region in early 1938 were Hiram Johnson of California, William E. Borah of Idaho, and Charles L. McNary, Oregon — all of them liberals with large bipartisan following.

The Eisenhower sweep in 1952 brought the West back substantially to its pre-New Deal Republicanism, and despite slips here and there last year this Republican predominance continues.

The over-all division for the 11 states in the present Congress is, for the House, 37 Republican to 18 Democratic, and the Senate, equally divided, 11 to 11.

IN ALL BUT THREE states this region senators are up for re-election next year, as follows. Bennett, Utah; Kuchel, California; Millikin, Colorado, and Welker, Idaho, Republicans; and Hayden, Arizona; Bible, Nevada; Magnuson, Washington, and Morse, Oregon, Democrats.

Of all the Democratic group the man the Republicans would most like to beat is Morse of Oregon, who not only changed sides since he was elected as a Republican in 1950 but is widely credited with the election to the Senate in 1954 of Richard Neuberger, giving his state two Democratic senators for the first time in its history.

Just last week, Morse burned all his Republican bridges by registering as a Democrat. Oregon Republicans profess to be delighted with this development. Its effect, they predict, will be to solidify support by Republicans of their own party nominee in 1956, but with a counterprobability that some orthodox Democrat will oppose Morse for nomination on the ground that he still is tainted with Republicanism.

Deliberate Distortion

By Raymond Moley

Since the appearance of the excellent motion picture, "Executive Suite," we have been treated to several television performances which also have utilized the background of American big business. However, as is always true of a vogue the tendency is to exaggerate and distort.

Two recent TV plays illustrate what I mean. Both were greeted by critics with fervent applause.

One was a play called "Patterns" which enjoyed so much praise that it was repeated. It is reported that it will be made into a movie and perhaps presented as a Broadway play.

However, if its TV sponsor's business were conducted in the manner portrayed by this show he would be unable to sponsor anything much longer. For such a business could not survive.

A very wise editorial in The Wall Street Journal said of this travesty.

"The president of this fictitious company is supposed to be a hard-boiled, driving executive. But as portrayed he is a fool who turns his executive committee meetings into snarling, shouting free-for-all brawls in which executives sound like Elizabethan fish-wives."

The said executive drives into the grave an aging but able and lovable subordinate to make room for a younger man who at first can't decide whether to be decent or indecent. He finally decides to outdo his boss as a blackguard.

The wife of the young man provides an assist in her husband's progress by telling a false story to the president of the company. The husband weakly accepts the wages of her sin.

Another play, "A Leaf Out of the Book," was overlooked by The Wall Street Journal, but provided an equally grotesque picture of American business.

Here there are two unprincipled, ambitious women — a hard-and-forty type and a 21-year-old imitator. Each labored feverishly to ensnare the interest of a flabby president who seemed to be more interested in cocktails and women than in his business.

The race seems to be determined by the capacity of one or the other of the women to get the run of the bar and the apartment of the president.

Hard-and-forty won. Not-quite-so-hard-21 finally collapsed on a shoulder provided by a supporting actor brought in for that purpose.

My own impression was that any company run on such a basis would hardly be worth the efforts of one woman, let alone two.

The Soviet masters would enjoy these presentations of American business. For they are exactly what they want their slaves to believe us to be.

The lessons of such productions are that the wages of sin is success, that nobody in the management of business is interested in serving the public and that the masters of big business are brutal, stupid, crooked and lecherous.

I wonder what Messrs. Reuther and Meany would do and say if TV script writers would portray such goings on in labor affairs. In the cases I have cited business apparently is willing not only to accept this sort of thing but to pay good money to have it shown to the American public.

For those who enjoyed the fine balance of values, economic and moral, in "Executive Suite" these imitations are poor fare.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Roads were poor and travel hazardous in the pioneer days and it sometimes required three hours for a man on horseback to go from Big Island to Marion. For many years no vehicle above the dignity of a two-horse wagon was known in the county yet in 1830, when the County Bible Society met in the log cabin residence of John Wildbahn in Marion, men from all parts of the county attended. The group included Henry Ustick of Mount Gilead, Joseph Boyd and Shubael W. Knapp of Pleasant; John McKelvy from near Cochranton and several Browns from Canaan.

Two large barges costing $750,000 are being constructed as living and messing quarters for submarine crews during the time their ships are undergoing repairs.

Daily Bible Thought

"Now when John heard in prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him, art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?" — Luke 7:22. The civilized world is well agreed that Jesus was indeed the Christ. His influence upon civilization is measurelessly greater than all other philosophers and preachers in human history. The whole world dates time from his birth.

George and the Cherry Tree

(If it had all happened in 1955)

Dad—George, did you chop down that cherry tree?

Mom — Now, father, what makes you think he did? It's not fair to ask a boy a question like that on a mere suspicion.

Dad — There you go interfering again. The cherry tree's been chopped down. You didn't do it and I didn't do it. If George didn't all he has to do is answer my question.

George — Gee, I'm always getting blamed for everything.

Mom — You run out and play, George, while I talk this over with your father.

(George obeys)

Dad — You'll ruin that boy.

Mom — I just don't think you should even intimate he cut down that tree unless you have evidence. That sort of thing can have a very bad effect on a boy's development.

Dad — Look; you know as well as I do that nobody else was around here to cut it down. I heard he has chopped down cherry trees all over the neighborhood.

Mom — Even so, I have been reading all the articles and books on correct methods of raising children and they all emphasize the sensitivity of kids and caution parents against harsh measures. We must study George carefully and get at the root causes of his behavior. Maybe he inherits a tendency to cut down cherry trees.

Dad — If he's a cherry tree chopper he gets it from your side.

Mom — Well the experts say we mustn't repress him. We must let him develop and find himself.

Dad —But must he find himself with a hatchet!!!

Mom — We mustn't forget that, after all, there is no great harm in chopping down a tree.

Pop — Ya mean you wouldn't say a word to George about it!

Mom — Not unless the tendency increases and he starts hacking down oaks and maples.

Dad — You're all wrong. I'm gonna call that kid in again and demand an answer whether he did it or not.

Mom — If you do I'll go home to my mother! George is a good boy. I never did care for that tree much.

(Dad is obdurate and calls Georgie in again)

Dad — Now, George, I'm not charging you with anything. I ain't saying you did it, understand? But one of my cherry trees has been cut down and I want to ask if you know anything about it?

George (who has been reading in the papers) —I refuse to answer that under the Fifth Amendment!

Iowa Draft Board Gets Many Notes of Thanks

OSKALOOSA, Ia. (UP) — Most draft boards seldom receive "thank you" notes from Army inductees, but the Mahaska County board is an exception.

Each package contains stationary, post cards, a ball point pen, two candy bars, two packages of cigarettes and a bar of soap. The new soldiers usually write a note

Glider Pilots Discover Private Roadways in Air

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP) — Glider pilots have discovered their own private highways in the sky.

Scientists say these "highways" make it possible for the gliders to whip along at 100 miles an hour for distances that range from 20 to 100 miles.

There's only one trouble, according to the Air Force's Cambridge Research Center. These extra-high highways last only about an hour before deteriorating or disappearing.

The highways are formed by cumulus clouds — cauliflower-like formations caused by rising warm air. The clouds form parallel lines with their axis in the general wind direction.

Thus, they make excellent avenues for non-powered aircraft. Soaring along on these highways, the glider pilot will find updrafts aplenty to keep him aloft and moving fast.

But if a highway does lose its glider - enticing qualities, there's usually another not too far away, if the pilot will fly cross wind. The cumulus cloud lines are spaced about five miles apart, and the highways likewise.

Mail Service Slow

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb. (UP) — When E. E. Vroman made application to get mail delivered to his home, he didn't plan on a 31-year wait.

Now, 31 years later, the postoffice finally has started carrier service in his neighborhood.

Three Mishaps, One Injury Are Reported Here

One person was injured in one of three accidents investigated Monday by Marion police and state highway patrolmen.

In the one accident investigated by patrolmen, a truck and a farm vehicle, collided at 12:10 p.m. on Route 30-S about one mile west of Marion.

Driving the westbound truck, which was loaded with a dump body, was Richard Miller, 21, of Milwaukee, Wis., while driving the farm truck was Donald Robert Williams, 37, of near Morral. The farm truck was hauling a cultipacker with extension bars.

Minor damage resulted to the left mirror, the band holding the dump body was broken, and the dump body was dented on Miller's truck.

Williams was given a citation to appear Saturday in Municipal Court to answer a charge of having too wide a load on his vehicle.

Girl Slightly Injured

A six-year-old girl was injured slightly in one of three traffic collisions investigated Monday by Marion police.

The girl was Margaret Whitehead, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Whitehead of 146 Clover Ave.

She suffered a bump on her forehead when the car driven by Mrs. Whitehead and a car driven by Roger L. Kingsley, 19, of 1215 Indiana Ave. collided at E. Church St. and Pennsylvania Ave. at 12:35 p.m. Monday. Margaret's injury was treated by her father.

Police cited Mrs. Whitehead, who was traveling south on Pennsylvania Ave., on a charge of failure to yield the right of way. In Municipal Court she pleaded guilty and was given a suspended fine of $15 and costs.

Each of the other two collisions caused less than $100 damage, police estimated.

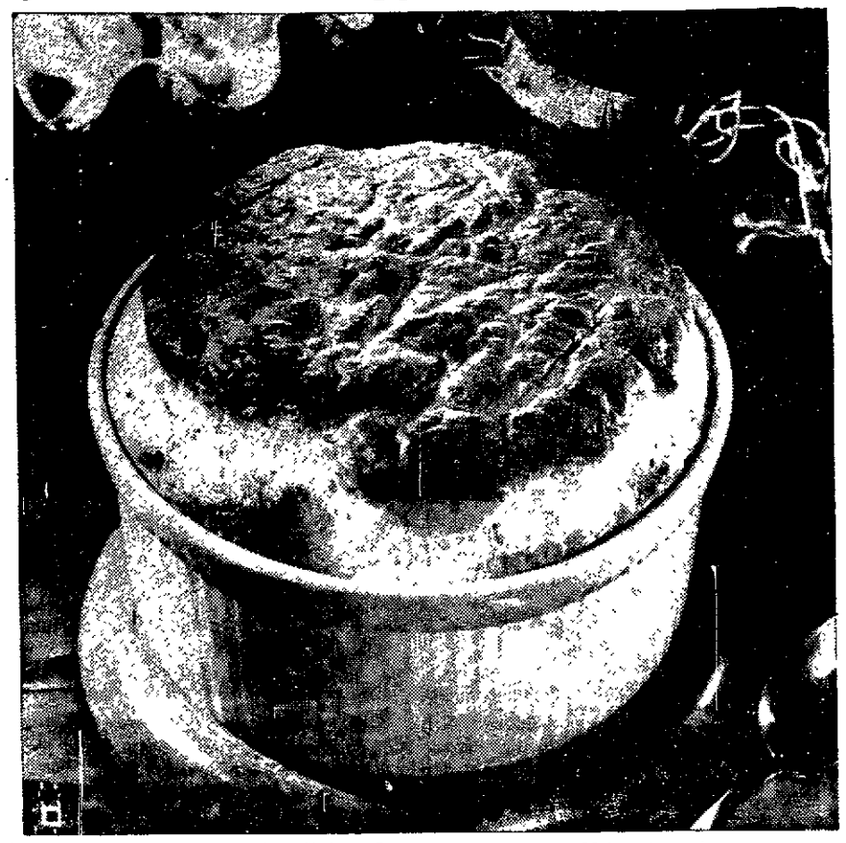
Oyster Souffle Is Topped With Shrimp Sauce



Although this oyster souffle is as puffy as a cloud, it provides good solid nourishment for a Lenten or Friday meal.

Served with a shrimp sauce it is a delightful, appetizing dish.

Use:

1 dozen oysters, drained
1½ teaspoons butter
6 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 tablespoon finely diced celery
1 teaspoon Worchestershire sauce
Oyster liquid plus milk to make 1½ cups
2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
3 egg whites
3 egg yolks

Shrimp Sauce

Saute oysters in butter about 3 minutes, or until edges curl. Cool and cut in small pieces.

Combine tapioca, salt, pepper, onion, celery, Worcestershire sace, and liquid in a saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat and add oysters and parsley. Allow to cool slightly while beating eggs.

Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add tapioca mixture to egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites.

Pour into 1-quart baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour, or until souffle is firm. Serve with Shrimp Sauce. Makes 4 servings.

To make 8 servings, double all ingredients, but use 5 eggs instead of 6. Bake in 2-quart baking dish.

Shrimp Sauce: Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a small saucepan. Add 2 tablespoons flour and stir until smooth. Add 1 cup milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture is smooth and thickened. Pour small amount over 1 slightly beaten egg yolk, stirring constantly. Then add remaining mixture and mix well. Return to saucepan. Add 2 teaspoons sherry and 1 cup cooked shrimp, which have been cut in half lengthwise. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Place over low heat until thoroughly heated. Do not boil. Makes about 2 cups sauce, or

FIREMEN CALLED TO HOME

Sifritt said an overloaded electric line caused the blown fuse. There was no fire. Firemen from the Central station answered the call at 2:10 p.m.

Local Schools Get $105,037

Total of $31,700,000 Is Distributed by State

Marion City School District will get $105,037 as its share of the first quarter distribution of state funds to schools throughout the state, James A. Rhodes, state auditor reported today.

The money is part of a record distribution of more than $31,700,000 to schools in Ohio, Rhodes said. Marion County School District will receive $77,783 as its share of the money.

Wyandot County Schools will receive $51,548.

The state total exceeded the February, 1954, distribution by nearly two million dollars, the report said.

The first 1955 distribution was split this way: $12,453,000 to county schools, $10,796,000 to city schools, $2,051,000 to exempted village schools, $4,895,000 to the teacher retirement system, $644,000 to school employes' retirement and $946,000 to county education boards.

Cleveland city schools got the biggest check for $1,061,332. The biggest check to counties went to Summit for $445,500. Sylvania in Lucas County received $76,538 for the largest sum to 80 exempted villages.

Attend Wesley Rally

At the New Life Rally service of Wesley Methodist Church tonight groups attending in a body will be the Unity Bible Class and Boy Scouts. The pastor, Rev. W. L. Stafford, will speak on "New Life for You Now." The services will continue this week and next each night except Saturdays.

Last night, the Men's Brotherhood and Women's Society Circle 4 attended as special groups. "The Power of Godliness" was the subject of the pastor's message.

Train Refuses To Move Without the Engineer

HATBORO, Pa. (UP) — The 8:15 morning train out of Hatboro to Philadelphia's Reading Terminal was 19 minutes late recently and the cause was something that hadn't occurred in 120 years.

Railroad officials said someone forgot to assign a substitute engineer for Howard Kelly Jr. of Hatboro, who was off that day.

Kelly, who normally operates the precision run, was summoned hurriedly from his bed to take stranded commuters to work.

Speaker at Epworth

Rev. J. Ira Jones

Speaker for the first Lenten service of Epworth Methodist Church tomorrow night will be Rev. J. Ira Jones, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Lima. His topic will be "Mustard Seeds and Mountains."

A former missionary to Japan from the North Indiana Conference of the denomination, leaving this country in 1909, he returned later to pastorates in Indiana and served churches at Sheridan, Logansport, and Richmond, Ind. In 1931 he came to Ohio as pastor of Epworth Church at Toledo. He was superintendent of the Chillicothe District in the Ohio Conference from 1936 to 1942 when he became pastor of the Lima church.

The choir will sing under direction of George Lane. This will be the first in a series of midweek Lenten services for the congregation set for the Wednesday nights preceding Easter. Guest ministers from churches in the district and the conference will be heard.

BIE Day Aims Explained at Luncheon

MARION'S BUSINESS-INDUSTRY-EDUCATION DAY yesterday was designed to give teachers an inside look at what goes on in Marion industry, and to give industrial workers and executives a chance to meet the teachers. Aims of the program were explained at a luncheon at Harding High School at noon Tours of industrial plants were held in the morning and afternoon

dustry, the pupils took the day off They'll have another vacation day today in observance of Washington's birthday.

Yesterday's tour started at 9 a.m. and after a lunch at Harding High School, more plants were visited in the afternoon.

ON THE itinerary were the Fairfield Engineering Co, Marion Power Shovel Co, Tecumseh Products Co, B F. Goodrich Co, Eaton Manufacturing Co, the Osgood Co, The Marion Star, General Telephone Co, Arro Expansion Bolt Co. and McMillen Feed Mills, Inc.

During the luncheon program, brief talks were given by five business, industrial and educational leaders.

Speaking on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, Odell Thompson, vice president, said that the BIE Day tours provide the teachers with an opportunity to inspect local business and industrial operations first-hand.

The knowledge thus gained is important because the teachers today are instructing students who tomorrow may be either executives or employes of many local concerns, he said.

FRANK BARTOS, chairman of the Industrial Leaders' Conference listed four reasons for BIE Day

He based them on objections written by a delegate to an industrial conference conducted for educators at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute last summer.

One of the objections was that much of the material presented was familiar and could have been easily obtained without attending the conference.

Many of the things the local teachers observed during their tours may have been familiar and no company representative would be likely to give away any secret processes or methods Bartos said Rather, the teachers would be given an opportunity to see how business in local firms is conducted under operating conditions, he said.

ANOTHER objection to the Rensselaer experiment was that there was an attempt to provide the educators attending with ready-made conclusions Expressing the hope there was no such criticism of the local program, he said that Marion concerns were endeavoring only to show the problems faced and the answers found to those problems.

The author criticizing the Rensselaer conference also said that the industrial leaders appeared to feel that talking to the educators was unimportant Bartos said the number of top level management personnel attending the luncheon and talking with local teachers proved this objection invalid in connection with the BIE Day program.

The fourth objection to the industrial conference at the Institute was that representatives of the automobile industry seemed to feel their companies were the most important in the world

Local teachers may have noticed the same thing among local business and industry leaders during their tours, he said This is natural because they are proud of their work and companies just as the teachers are proud of their work in molding the future citizens He added that he felt sure local industrial leaders would welcome suggestions for improvements.

ROBERT BROWN, superintendent of city schools, said he felt that teachers have a definite responsibility to understand the community in which they work

They need to understand fully the business and industry of the community and industry and business should know the teachers and understand them he said

Because industry and business is so important to community economy, the experience gained during the BIE Day program should help the educators, he said

Very Rev William J Spickerman said that in the last 25 years the city has grown and advanced particularly in the last 10 years since the war This has been due to several things of which community spirit has played an important role, he indicated

Examples of the community spirit existing in the city are the many new schools the new Marion General Hospital and other civic improvements, he said

Result of this has been the influx of new industries into the city which has helped Marion remain a prosperous community compared with some others he said

THE CHRISTIAN doctrine of brotherly love is advocated in Marion, he said He closed his talk by asking God's guidance for the community in the future

Don Grace, advertising manager of The Star, was master of ceremonies and introduced various guests attending the luncheon and the speakers

Invocation was given by Rev Ashley Booth of Central Christian Church and the benediction by Rev Fr. Spickerman of St Mary Church

Dinner music was provided by a nine-piece orchestra made up of Harding High School students and was arranged by Homer Huffman L G Jones directed group singing for money spent on building toll roads that become part of the interstate network.

On the bond issue, Eisenhower said

"I am inclined to the view that it is sounder to finance this program by special bond issues ... rather than by an increase in general revenue obligations '

He said he thought these bonds should be paid off through increasing revenues from present gas and diesel oil taxes augmented in limited instances with tolls "

Other Points

That was the President s only reference to toll roads

Eisenhower also said ' A sound federal highway program, I believe, can and should stand on its own feet with highway users providing the total dollars necessary for improvement and new construction '

Under the Eisenhower program the federal government would pay about 31¼ billion dollars of the contemplated 101 billions of expenditures

Eisenhower said he was forwarding to Congress the Clay report and that he would send along shortly a survey of highway needs now being completed by the bureau of public roads These reports, he said, ' provide a solid foundation for a sound program

On the other hand, the President said, ' inescapably, the vastness of the highway enterprise fosters varieties of proposals which must be resolved into a national highway pattern '

Preliminary Needs

Eisenhower listed ' the preliminary 10 year totals of needs" as the following

Interstate networks, joining 90 per cent of all cities over 50 000 population—23 billion dollars

Primary system, connecting all principal cities and manufacturing areas—30 billions

Secondary system including farm-to-market roads—15 billions

Other streets and roads including urban feeder streets—33 billions

Of this sum, the federal government would put up 25 billions for the interstate system, 5¼ billions for primary and secondary roads 75 million for urban streets and 225 million for national forest highways

The apparent discrepancy between the proposed federal government s 5 billion expenditure for the interstate network and the figure of 23 billions for work cost is a bookkeeping matter

Part of the federal money would go into urban access roads With state money, the actual total, including the access roads for the interstate network would be 27 billions

Top Priority

The President's message said the interstate system should "be given top priority in construction planning "

Eisenhower noted that the Clay committee had recommended that the federal government continue giving aid to primary and secondary road systems on a 50-50 matching basis with the states at the level called for in highway legislation enacted by Congress last yea.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), chairman of the Senate Public Roads subcommittee has introduced a rival highway bill which would continue the current matching program but would increase by 725 million dollars a vear the federal share in the program Gore emphasized his bill called not only for stepped up work on the interstate system but also on the primary and secondary roads

Gore and other Democratic leaders were called to the White House yesterday for a preview of the President's message.

Shatilov has been a frequent spokesman for the Soviet army on previous occasions heralding the anniversary of the creation of the Soviet Union s military forces

Earlier the Moscow radio carried an article from the government newspaper Izvestia accusing the United States and Britain of intensifying the atomic arms race.

Last week the British government announced that it can and will make hydrogen bombs Britain has the atomic bomb but at present only the United States and Russia have both types

The broadcast charged Britain is ignoring public demands for atomic disarmament and stepping up its manufacture of nuclear weapons in preparation for a new war

Russia proposed last week that a world disarmament conference be held this year and that atomic weapons now in existence be destroyed Western diplomats have warned that acceptance of the Russian proposal would leave the Communists with a vast preponderance of conventional forces The West also has insisted on an ironclad inspection system

The Russian proposal is to be examined at a conference opening here Friday of the U N subcommittee on disarmament Representatives of Russia Britain Canada, France and the United States will participate

ing up a steaming cross fire of debate

Chairman Cooper (D-Tenn) of the Ways and Means Committee said a Republican bill last year gave tax cuts primarily to the wealthy and to big corporations, in the face of a bigger federal deficit than is anticipated now

Cooper said Eisenhower already has indicated he is planning tax cuts next year and Democrats want to make sure the relief goes to "hard-pressed low-income taxpayers, where it is needed most "

Rep. Daniel A Reed (R-NY) senior GOP member of the committee, denounced the Democratic move as ' unpardonable irresponsibility . a political gimmick designed to buy votes "

The tax cut plan was approved by 14 Democrats and a lone Republican Rep Baker of Tennessee It was opposed by nine Republicans and a single Democrat Rep Burr Harrison of Virginia

Still awaiting trial are Arch Ferrell, prosecuting attorney at Phenix City during the reign of vice and former Atty Gen Si Garrett whom Patterson would have succeeded in office

Deason tried to bring testimony from a former Phenix City police man that Ferrell threatened him for "messing around ' in the murder investigation

Judge McElroy blocked that line of questioning however, until the state shows a connection between Ferrell and the man on trial

The prosecutor said ex-policeman E J. Peoples would testify that he received a threatening telephone call from Ferrell after he remarked within hearing of Ferrell and Fuller that Patterson s killer had to be somebody who knew him and knew how to get out of there."

Most of Matusow s testimony yesterday duplicated what he had told the Federal District Court in New York City last week in a hearing on the motion for a new trial

On one new tack, Matusow questioned testimony by Elizabeth Bentley, a key government witness in congressional hearings at which she has named scores of persons as helping Communist espionage agents

'Not on Hearsay'

' Miss Bentley, I believe, gave false testimony ' Matusow said I am basing that on conversations with Miss Bentley and not on hearsay " He did not elaborate

Newsmen last night were unable to reach Miss Bentley, who lives in Lafayette, La

Eastland had said in a statement opening the inquiry that examination of hundreds of documents has shown Miss Bentley's testimony was "flawlessly truthful

On other points Matusow testified

1 He does not know whether Angus Cameron and Albert Kahn, New York publishers of his forthcoming book False Witness " are Communists He said he would let them publish the book even if he should learn they are Reds who would use it ' to serve the ends of the Communist party '

2 He was paid $600 or $700 for speeches in Washington in which he called Sen Jackson (D-Wash) ' a pro-Communist ' and between $1,200 and $1 400 for speeches calling Sen Mansfield (D-Mont) "a toll of the Communist party ' Asked to name those he had "attacked unjustly for money," as Eastland put it, Matusow named the two senators and added There are many, there are hundreds "

BIS Chaplain Speaks

Charter Night Dinner Is Held by Local Lions Club

The annual charter night banquet of the Marion Lions Club was held Monday night at Hotel Harding attended by approximately 150 members, their wives and guests.

Robert D. Cripps, president of the club, extended a welcome to the guests and Walter D. Moore served as toastmaster for the evening.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Rev. Charles Harrison, chaplain of the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster. He has served as chaplain of the 116th Combat Battalion and is the current president of the Chaplain's Association.

REV. HARRISON, in his message to the Lions and guests, referred to Brotherhood Week which currently is being observed. He urged that the ideals of the week be carried out through the year and not just during the particular week of observance.

He pointed out that despite the progress which has been made in the world today, we have not found the key of living together. He maintains that being able to look past the faults and differences of color and creed is the long-sought key of living together in a peaceful world

Rev. Harrison believes we should recognize life's opportunities not just in work but in everyday living in order to obtain happiness.

The speaker urged each one to keep alive one's dream since marriages, organization and countries fail because someone loses the dream.

Fourteen charter members of the original 50 charter members were introduced by Mr. Moore and given special recognition. They included H. L. Arbogast, Cecil Baldauf, Dr J. W Bull, Jack Danner, Dr. R E. Eicher, Cecil Gabler, John Gillis, James G Lytle, Thayer Martin, Robert McMahon, Wilfred Schweinfurth, Roy Shipton, William Reichenstein and Willis Nye.

Group singing was led by Frank Barnhill, with Morris Kline as accompanist, and organ music during the dinner hour was provided by Mr. Kline.

Bouquets of flowers decorated the tables and the ladies were given roses arranged as large boutonnieres A cocktail hour preceded the dinner and program

The committee in charge of arrangements for the evening was composed of Mr and Mrs. Robert McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Rex S Bills and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bly.

Guests present besides wives of the club members included Carl Yingling of Fremont, district governor, and Mrs. Yingling; Dr Robert Tracht of Crestline, senior deputy district governor; Darl Orwig of Tiffin, junior deputy district governor, and Mrs. Orwig; Sid Tennant of Mount Gilead, zone chairman, and Mrs. Tennant, Robert Braeden of Mount Gilead, president of the club there; Miss Arlene Houpt of Marion; Mr and Mrs Howard Johnson of Green Camp.

C. & O. Building, 'Gas' Station Win Approval

Approval of two "permissive use" permits and tentative approval of another has been granted by the Marion City Planning Commission, Mayor Harold F. Robinson, announced today.

One of the permits approved, subject to approval of City Council, was for a new telegraph and yard office for the C & O. Railroad Co. along the railroad right-of-way at the Garden City Pike

Another was for the construction of a service station at N. Main and Council Sts

The tentative approval was for construction of an automobile washrack just south of the A and P supermarket on N Main St Mayor Robinson said this was referred to the City Traffic Commission to determine whether or not the proposed washrack will cause traffic congestion in the area.

Sycamore Marks End of an Era With Installation of Dial Phones

SYCAMORE — Sunday, Feb 27, is scheduled to mark the close of an era in the history of the Independently-owned Sycamore Telephone Co On that date the "number, please" system will give way to the dial telephone service.

The Sycamore company was organized on Jan 2, 1912, with a small number of subscribers. The equipment presently in use was purchased more than 25 years ago and was for common battery and magneto phones The switchboard was a two position job which means only two operators could work at the same time It worked well for 300 or 400 patrons, but there are now nearly 1,100 subscribers and the set-up became inadequate During the last few years, repair parts for the obsolete board were unavailable

The company has been working on the change here for at least two years and this has entailed a great amount of work All cables had to be replaced and new telephones installed

Two other exchanges operated by the company have been using dials for some time Melmore since Sept 1 1952, and McCutchenville since March 1 1953

In Sycamore, the company has built a new brick building on E. Seventh St. which houses all of the new equipment. The bookkeepers will remain for a time at the old location.

The improvement will be welcomed by the community, but many will miss the little things "beyond the call of duty" that the telephone girls did for the subscribers. The nine switchboard operators are Mary Kappauf, Esther Gibbs, Ila Mae Baugher, Mary Mackling, Lorraine Yentzer, Christine Moyer, Ruth Moore, Gouldie Miller and Lucille Sprau.

The president of the company is Anson Bloom, who is also the manager; vice president is George Kappauf; treasurer is Coyne Bloom; plant superintendent N H Conner, secretary, Mary Kappauf and bookkeeper, Mabel Martin

Revelry High In New Orleans

Annual Mardi Gras Festival Under Way

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Reveling thousands and a tripled police cordon greeted Mardi Gras in a downpour today, watching expectantly for the big parades and uneasily for further rioting.

Despite the threat of parades being rained out, carnival fever was at the boiling point.

Hotels and rooming houses were filled to overflowing, restaurants had long lines outside, and bars and taverns removed their tables to make room for more drinkers.

People young and old wore masks Lampposts in the business district were painted with leering clowns, faces in the traditional Mardi Gras colors of green, gold and purple.

By city ordinance, masking ends at sundown, a throwback to the troubled days of Reconstruction. Mardi Gras itself ends at midnight, when Comus and his court pay a visit to the Rex ball and toast his health with a golden goblet of champagne.

Police reported relative calm returned to the French Quarter last night, although thousands braved the rain and jammed the narrow streets.

Founding Father

By George Sokolsky

The men who formed this nation were extraordinarily well - read, experienced and wise. It is a curiosity in history that during and after a revolution, so much talent should have been joined in such bodies as the committee that prepared the Declaration of Independence or the assembly that wrote the Constitution of the United States. These men chose George Washington of Virginia, first as their military leader and then as President of the United States.

SOKOLSKY

Washington espoused the cause of freedom from the very beginning and he never wavered, no matter what the disappointments. Valley Forge alone would have broken the spirit of an ordinary man.

WASHINGTON WAS inevitably a nationalist because that is what he was fighting for — the establishment of an independent nation. Throughout the military campaign he complained that the best talents in the country were devoting themselves to local affairs instead of to the nation. In his great speech to the officers in Newburgh, N. Y., who were at the point of mutiny because they were so long unpaid and unprovided for, he said:

"And let me conjure you, in the name of our common country, as you value your own sacred honor, as you respect the rights of humanity, and as you regard the military and national character of America, to express your utmost horror and detestation of the man who wishes, under any specious pretenses, to overturn the liberties of our country, and who wickedly attempts to open the flood gates of civil discord, and deluge our rising empire in blood . . ."

IN HIS CIRCULAR to the States of June 8, 1783, the Revolutionary War having been won, Washington set forth four fundamentals for the establishment of a successful America:

"There are four things, which I humbly conceive, are essential to the well being, I may even venture to say, to the existence of the United States as an independent power:

"First — An indissoluble Union of the States under one federal head.

"Second — A sacred regard to public justice.

"Third — the adoption of a proper peace establishment, and

"Fourth — the prevalence of that pacific and friendly disposition, among the people of the United States, which will induce them to forget their local prejudices and policies, to make those mutual concessions which are requisite to the general prosperity, and in some instances, to sacrifice their individual advantages to the interest of the community."

EXPLAINING POINT ONE, he said:

"Altho' it may not be necessary or proper for me in this place to enter into a particular disquisition of the principles of the Union, and to take up the great question which has been frequently agitated, whether it be expedient and requisite for the states to delegate a larger proportion of power to Congress, or not, yet it will be a part of my duty, and that of every true patriot, to assert without reserve, and to insist upon the following positions, that unless the states will suffer Congress to exercise those prerogatives, they are undoubtedly invested with by the Constitution, every thing must very rapidly tend to anarchy and confusion . . ."

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S profound religious attitude appears in this Circular to the States, which ends on this prayer

"I now make it my earnest prayer, that God would have you, and the state over which you preside, in His holy protection, that He would incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government, to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, for their fellow citizens of the United States at large, and particularly for their brethren who have served in the field, and finally, that He would most graciously be pleased to dispose us all, to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility and pacific temper of mind, which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without an humble imitation of whose example in these things, we can never hope to be a happy nation."

George Washington wrote much and a great deal of it has been preserved. As one reads, the thought is constantly uppermost that among the independent and even jealous men who surrounded him, his figure loomed large because his ideals and philosophy of life were so clear. He made us a nation; he sought to preserve us a nation.

PRESIDENT HONORS IRVING BERLIN. President Eisenhower is shown with Irving Berlin after he had given him a gold medal in recognition of Berlin's services in composing "God Bless America" and many other patriotic songs. Mrs. Berlin is shown with them as they inspect the medal at a White House ceremony. The medal, authorized by Congress last year, has Berlin's profile on one side. On the other side is an inscription.

Recreation Area Studied For Town's Aged People

WAYNE, Neb. (UP) — The Wayne Herald, a weekly, said a move by the town council to remodel the police station probably is a "move to provide a card-playing facilities" for the town's elder citizens.

And the Herald added that it believed the city should make the move.

"We go all out for the rest of our citizens," the paper said, "why not for the elders, too?

"These men are valuable citizens. They have lived here a long time. They are paying taxes. They have helped make Wayne what it is today."

Ohio Traffic Fatalities Drop During January

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state department of highway safety reported today that 120 persons died in Ohio traffic accidents in January this year compared to 165 killed during the same month in 1954.

"January is traditionally a bad month in traffic," said Director U. S. Felty, "and the 27 per cent reduction proves that motorists are determined to reduce this slaughter."

He said department figures show the only month that topped the 27 per cent reduction during all of 1954 was April when traffic fatalities dropped 32 per cent under April 1953.

Department records indicate 1,865 persons were killed in Ohio traffic in 1954 compared to 2,047 in 1953.

Notes on Labor

By Victor Riesel

There are 13 chemicals found in certain factories which could cause cancer on the job — but there's little reason for hysteria if those who handle them are checked regularly.

VICTOR RIESEL

The list of these chemicals — and the types of cancer they can provoke — was drawn up by Dr. H. K. Abrams, medical director for a Chicago Building Service Union local, at the invitation of the American Cancer Society. It is only a partial list of occupational causes of the malignancy and was included in the first of a series of articles to be written by doctors specializing in occupational diseases.

To know is to be forewarned. So here is the list:

The chemicals or other "agents" which can cause cancer of the skin, eyelids, lips or eyes are crude anthracene, arsenic, artificial asphalt, benzol, creosote, crude mineral oil, crude paraffin, pitch, soot, tars, shale oil, X-rays and other radioactive materials such as uranium and radium.

Cancer of the bladder can be caused by aromatic amines. Asbestos and chromates can cause lung cancer. Benzoil can hit the blood-forming organs and the bladder. And X-rays, etc., can affect the skin, bones and blood forming organs.

Get yourself checked regularly. You seldom have anything to fear but fright . . .

WE MAY SOON SEE the final smashing of the mob which has murdered and corrupted some union and public officials to cover up their multi-million dollar looting of labor's welfare and pension funds.

Right now the CIO's national attorney, Arthur Goldberg, is working on a formula which may wipe out the very source of this dollar-dipping crowd. For some weeks now, Mr. Goldberg and some research assistants have been examining the various state insurance laws.

These researchers are seeking to discover whether the laws actally specify that a commission must be paid by an insurance company to a broker when insurance is placed to cover union members. The CIO men have been traveling the conutryside and they believe that the laws may not really say this.

They think that such rulings may merely be the decision of state officials — administrative rulings.

Actually it now appears that unions and welfare fund trustees need not place their multi-billion insurance business throgh brokers and agents. The unions and the labor funds may be able to place their insurance directly with the companies, CIO people believe, thus eliminating commission payments and, therefore, the source of greed and corruption in the field.

If the mobs can't draw commissions they'll look elsewhere for easy dough, as they did after bootlegging was wiped out by repeal . . .

SOME OF THESE muscle - men, who control a combine of unions, soon will be embarrassed. Eastern anti-crime authorities have discovered and may soon reveal that these union mobsters have been tapping the telephones of honest union chiefs . . .

Many who are close to John L. Lewis believe that he is finally convinced he can never again play an important role inside labor, although he can still make headline splashes. His friends see evidence of this in the fact that he called off all celebrations of his 75th birthday on Feb. 12 and slipped away quietly by himself to Florida, isolated from the labor movement he once led . . .

Dave Beck's International Teamsters Brotherhood headquarters is matching the organizing funds of his regional officials — and they have thus gotten up a $1,000,000 kitty for a drive from the Gulf of Mexico to the Arctic Circle.

Some $600,000 is earmarked for Canada, $200,000 for the central U.S. area and the same amount for the west coast. Jim Hoffa, 9th veepee of the Teamsters, will direct. Dave Beck's plans now are to stay in office until 1957, run for re-election and then step down somewhere in mid-term. Then he will indicate that he prefers young Jim Hoffa to succeed him . . .

TRANSPORT UNION CHIEF Mike Quill, who has been blasting the AFL-CIO merger, has been offered one of the new federation's 27 vice-presidencies — and will probably take it despite his bombast . . . At the Transport Union's convention, it was said that the new labor federation's new name may be the "Congress of American Labor" . . .

You can learn from government reports what the gooney bird's habits are, such as trying to hatch electric light bulbs instead of eggs on Midway Island. And you can learn from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service that we produced 50,100,000 pounds of fish sticks in 1954. But I haven't been able to find a single pamphlet or report on automation, although it is one of the most controversial issues of the year and the electronic computer industry (basis of automaticity), to mention just one field is expected to hit the billion dollar annual volume.

Because of automation, the nation's maintenance bill will increase by $1,000,000,000 in 1955. This is a result of the need to service such magical machines as that produced by the Brush Electronics Co. of Cleveland, which electronically spots yarn imperfections at the speed of 100 yards a minute.

Where's the Fire?

WAYNESBORO, Va. (AP) — Raymond T. Hunter was serving as a member of a jury when the procedure was interrupted by sirens and clanging fire engines. Police Sgt. M. N. Hughes was called out but returned shortly to inform the court of the location of the fire.

Judge C. G. Quesenbery recessed court—it was Hunter's home burning.

On Washington

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

George Washington, born 223 years ago today, remains the least understood of famous American Presidents.

HAL BOYLE

He became known as "The Father of His Country" even in his own lifetime. But few of the 164,000,00 who now dwell in the American republic he did so much to found feel any temptation to call him "Daddy." None speak fondly of "Papa" Washington.

He is revered more as a human temple than loved as a fellow human being.

Why? The humorist, Artemus Ward, gave one reason long ago when he said:

"The prevailing" weakness of most public men is to slop over!... G. Washington never slopt over."

The 19th century agnostic, Robert Ingersoll, wrote of him:

"Washington is now only a steel engraving. About the real man who lived and loved and hated and schemed, we know but little."

BUT MODERN research has uncovered the warm man beneath the formidable legend. It has shown him to be a man with many faults, but with the greatness to rise above them.

What kind of a man was George Washington? Was he a stuffed shirt—or fun to know?

Well, teen - agers might be cheered to know that he couldn't spell too well. At 16 he wrote "thread bear" when he meant "threadbare."

But he was a great boy for self-improvement. He wrote down his own principles of conduct, and tried to live up to them.

In youth and middle age he loved parties. He liked to flirt. He also liked to drink, gamble on the races and at cards, and enjoyed dancing until he was 64 years old He also liked to play billiards and ride to the hounds.

AS MANY teen-agers now become self - conscious because of acne or pimples, young Washington suffered because an attack of smallpox left his face deeply pitted. But he learned to become a sprightly conversationalist with the ladies. They enjoyed his company. Of course, even in those days the girls liked a man who had a good figure, and George grew to be 6 feet 3 and weighed 220 pounds.

As a soldier he made many errors. In his first fight with the French he and his entire command had to surrender because he had built a fort in the wrong place. He made other bad mistakes as leader of the Continental Army that cost him battles, but he won the war.

He was a good farmer, practiced crop rotation, experimented in breeding plants and cattle.

As a statesman, he spoke seldom —but when he spoke he made sense.

He lacked the genius of Benjamin Franklin, the oratorical ability of Patrick Henry, or the statecraft of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson.

What did he have then that made him so admired, even by his own contemporaries? Courage, energy, judgment, commonsense, modesty, and granite character. In a time when many men were bought, Washington's honor was never for sale.

"On the whole," wrote Jefferson, his character was, in its mass, perfect—in nothing bad, in few points indifferent; and it may truly be said that never did nature and fortune combine more perfectly to make a man great."

The evidence is that Washington became colder only as he grew older. After he became President he shook hands with no one, acknowledging introductions with a formal bow. He attended no parties outside his own home because he felt the head of a nation should never be a guest, indebted even for hospitality.

IF THIS SEEMS to us bending over backward, we must remember the intrigues Washington had survived, and his desire to avoid showing the least sign of partiality, But in spite of this, he suffered so from the attack of vilification launched against him during his second term he refused to run again, declining to remain longer the target of a mob he never pandered.

He died as bravely as he had lived, saying serenely:

"I die hard, but I am not afraid to go. I feel myself going. I thank you for your attentions; but I pray you to take no more trouble about me. Let me go off quietly. I cannot last long."

Then he calmly gave instructions for his burial—and died.

Of him, Abraham Lincoln said later:

"To add brightness to the sun or glory to the name of Washington is alike impossible. Let none attempt it. In solemn awe pronounce the name, and in its naked deathless splendor leave it shining on."

Are You Really Too Fat Or Just Pleasingly Plump?

Are you kidding yourself into thinking that you are just pleasingly plump. If you are overweight there is no better time to correct your problem than right now. Read this letter from Mrs. Marie Markley, 1339 E. 289th St., Wickliffe, Ohio. Mrs. Markley writes: "I decided to try Rennel Concentrate because I was bulging in all the wrong places, and I had heard about its reducing qualities through friends. At first I didn't tell my husband, but finally I just had to explain why I was looking and feeling so much better. After taking the first bottle, my waist line was slimmer, and to my happy surprise I was able to wear a girdle I had not been able to get into for years. In continuing with Rennel I have found that along with its slenderizing value, it has also brought increased health to me. I look as fresh and young as if I'd never reduced, yet the flabby fat has disappeared from my abdomen and thighs. My husband has also started using it, and you may be sure we are both Rennel rooters now."

Thousands of others have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves — if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Insist on and be sure to get Rennel.

Defaults on GI Housing Loans Will Be Probed

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A congressional investigation into defaults on GI housing loans will be launched in two or three weeks, Ohio Rep. William H. Ayres says.

Ayres, who is ranking Republican on the housing subcommittee of the Veterans Affairs Committee, told the Akron Real Estate Board yesterday:

"The government lost about 29 million dollars since 1948 in the (GI loan) program. Everyone in the past looked only at the percentage of defaults and found it small, about one per cent.

"But it runs into a large sum of money. Further, it happened in a rising economy. What would happen in a recession?"

Ayres asserted a number of defaults might have come from resale of houses financed by a veteran.

He said veterans who buy houses under GI provisions and later sell them, allowing purchasers to carry on the payments, are asked to make good if a purchaser defaults.

There is nothing illegal about a veteran buying a house, financing it under GI loan provisions, and then reselling it.

"But I have had complaints from veterans who thought they sold their house and were clear of it," Ayres said. He added:

"The only way the veteran can be sure he is through with the transaction is to close out the GI mortgage and let the buyer get his own."

1955 Drive Opens In Wyandot County

CAREY — Plans for the 1955 annual Red Cross campaign scheduled to begin March 1 are now getting underway, according to Rev. D. V. Whitenack, Wyandot County campaign co-chairman. Rev. Whitenack will supervise the campaign in Carey and Crawford, Ridge, Salem and Richland Townships.

Admits Perjuring Self for Money

When Did Matusow Lie? Senators Seeking Answer

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hatchet was probably the only thing George Washington and Harvey Matusow ever had in common.

Parson Weems related that as a young boy Washington manfully admitted to his father he had chopped a cherry tree with his hatchet "I cannot tell a lie"

This is Washington's birthday anniversary and the second day that senators try to find out if there is any truth in Matusow

The 28-year-old Matusow now cheerfully admits he did a hatchet job on hundreds of people by lying when he said they had Communist connections or leanings

Historians made up their minds about Parson Weems long ago they don't take him seriously Those listening to Matusow don't know what to think

He swears under oath now that he was a professional liar, perjuring himself for money.

MATUSOW has amazingly self-conscious eyes He had reason to be self-conscious when he appeared yesterday before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee

He had appeared before that same group five times in 1952 swearing to tell the truth when he gave information about people

Yesterday he raised his right hand in the Senate Office Building's huge and crowded caucus room and loudly, like an exhibitionist, swore to tell the truth Then he testified that what he had sworn to under oath before was false

He can't be jailed for perjury on his own say-so that he committed it. To convict him of perjury the government would have to prove when he lied before or now, with witnesses or other evidence

BUT IT SEEMS a safe bet since Matusow admits he got money for lying, that the Internal Revenue Service is checking his income tax returns If his statements now show he lied on his returns, he might be nailed for income tax evasion

The Internal Security subcommittee chairman, Sen Eastland (D-Mis), read a prepared statement "This committee in this series of hearings cannot hope to determine what is truth '

Why any hearings then" Eastland said the subcommittee may be able to show in some instances what are lies

Matusow said he joined the Communist party in 1947 and was expelled in 1951 after having turned FBI informer Ever since he has been cashing in on what he is supposed to have known about communism by testifying before federal juries and congressional committees.

He not only said he had received hundreds of dollars for making lying political speeches but tried yesterday to discredit another ex-Communist witness Elizabeth Bentley, who has testified on Communist spy rings He said he believes she gave false testimony

Right now he's trying to hit the jackpot He has written a book "False Witness," not yet published Sen Jenner (R-Ind) wondered aloud whether he was lying now to boost his book sales.

Mohawks Bid For Clincher in Hockey Action

By The Associated Press

The Cincinnati Mohawks could win their third straight International Hockey League title tonight by downing Grand Rapids or, if Fort Wayne defeats Toledo.

The fourth-place Mercurys from Toledo are the only team which could beat out the Mohawks. But that would mean Cincinnati would have to drop its last nine games and Toledo would have to win its next dozen.

The second and third place Troy and Grand Rapids squads already have been eliminated from the competition for top spot honors. The Troy Bruins only have eight more games to play and victories in each one would given them 68 points, one less than Cincinnati already has accumulated. Grand Rapids, with 10 games to go, could amass 67 points.

However, even with the top race decided, the three weeks left in the IHL race are not without keen interest. The first four squads will participate in the league playoffs. Fifth place Johnstown, with 10 games left, is only a half-game behind Toledo and a whole game behind Grand Rapids.

STOLEN FIRETRUCK FOUND

NUTLEY, N.J. (AP) — Somebody stole a bright red firetruck Sunday from outside fireman Albert Place's home. The truck, with Nutley Fire Department painted in large letters on the hood, was found parked in New York City yesterday near the Lincoln Tunnel entrance.

Local Archers Scheduled for Match Sunday

Members of the Black Feather Bowmen will be at their home range Sunday for a 56-target hunters' round, first arrow for high scoring. The meet is scheduled to get under way at 1 p.m. regardless of weather conditions.

A spokesman for the archery club said today, the Black Feather group has never cancelled a meet at its range due to the weather. The bowmen hunt and fish in all kinds of weather, feeling that the practice will increase their chances of winning, not only during the hunting seasons, but also in archery meets during all season.

The hunter's round to be held Sunday is the closest of all the regular type meetings to help the archers practice for regular hunting.

The bowmen will enter the meet fresh from a 6-target field meet last Sunday at the Camp Owens ranges. Al Roach of near Cardington peppered the targets for a 507 score despite the muddy footing. He carted off the first place ribbon while Phil Duckworth of near Marion tallied 40 to cop the second place spot. Finishing in third was Don Inskeep of East Liberty with 398.

The three top winners, as well as receiving ribbons, were presented with bear steaks by Don Hinton. The bear was taken by Hinton during a recent hunting trip in Michigan.

Six new members have joined the Black Feather Bowmen since Jan. 1 and more are expected. A beginner's meet is being planned to help these prospective new members as soon as the weather improves. The public is invited to follow the archers around the course as a spectator or join and receive free instruction in the use of the long bow and arrow.

The scores:

Dons Retain Grip on Top Cage Rating

By The Associated Press

When West Virginia's Mountaineers took George Washington's Colonials into camp last Saturday 83-74, they did more than just take a tight hold on the Southern Conference basketball lead. They shook the Colonials loose from fifth place in the weekly Associated Press ranking poll and dropped them clear down to 10th.

That was the only important change in the rankings as the sports writers and broadcasters gave tournament - bound San Francisco a thumping vote of confidence today.

Except for George Washington's drop, the teams remained in order down to eighth place. Following San Francisco, on top for the third straight week, came Kentucky, LaSalle, Duquesne, Marquette, North Carolina State and Minnesota. The last three just moved up a notch to fill the vacancy. Utah, 10th a week ago, moved into eighth place by a narrow margin over UCLA, which held ninth.

San Francisco, winner of 20 of its 21 games and already named as an "at-large" entry in the NCAA Tournament, drew 65 of the 110 first-place votes and 953 points. Second - place Kentucky had 11 firsts and 758 points.

Point scoring is on the basis of 10 for each first-place vote, 9 for second, etc.

The leaders, with first-place votes in parentheses:

1.	San Francisco (65)	953
2.	Kentucky (11)	758
3.	LaSalle (3)	622
4.	Duquesne (2)	611
5.	Marquette (8)	380
6.	N. C. State (2)	344
7.	Minnesota (3)	334
8.	Utah (1)	320
9.	UCLA (2)	272
10.	G. Washington	240
11.	Dayton (3) (20-3)	200

Columbus East Tops Class A Cage Poll, Portsmouth Skids

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus East, which has been knocking at the throne room door all season, today was right up there on top as Ohio s No 1 high school basketball team

The 1951 state champions moved into the king row as Portsmouth s Trojans absorbed consecutive setbacks over the weekend—65-53 to Mansfield and 88-80 to Lima Central—and skidded from the lead to fourth place in the weekly Associated Press poll

53 Vote

A total of 53 sports editors had a hand in snuffling the squads each casting votes for his 10 top teams The count showed Columbus East on top with 370 poll points on the 10-9-8-etc basis, Findlay s unbeaten Trojans second with 292 and Canton McKinley s Bulldogs third with 226

McKinley jumped from fourth to third despite Saturday night s 69 61 loss to East Liverpool—a feat which shoved the Potters from among the also-rans to tenth place in the poll with a 14-4 record

George Heller Portsmouth coach wasn t too upset by the twin losses which cost his boys the lead Free throws were the difference in each game and Heller said the tighter officiating in the upper half of the state upset his kids to some extent The Trojans won the Greater Ohio League title with a 7-2 record over such standouts as Mansfield Lima Central Lima South, Springfield, Hamilton and Middletown

Vienna, with Rex Leach scoring 38 points to beat Vernon 89-33 continued to pace Class B with Lockland Wayne sticking to second There were few changes in the top lists although Springfield and Struthers dropped from the Class A elite and Shelby and East Liverpool moved in Copley replaced Fairfield Twp Columbiana County Class B champion in that division for the only change

From here and there

Larry Huston of Savannah pulled a little further away from Vienna s Leach in the Class B scoring race While Leach was getting 38 against Vernon to boost his 20-game record to 893 points for a 44 6 average Huston dropped in 41 against Havesville and 42 against Polk in Ashlnd County tournaments tilts That moved him to 1 022 for 22 games—an average of 46 4

Record Appears Safe

Despite the year s heavy shooting, the single-game record still belongs to Dick Bogenrife who scored 120 in the 137-46 victory over Canaan in 1953 Bogenrife playing with Sedalia Midway, scored 52 field goals and 16 free throws to take a stranglehold on the laurels

They were dancing in the streets in Venedocia Van Wert County (pop 170) Friday night as York High defeated Ohio City 74 61 It was York s first Van Wert County tournament win since 1935 but the fans made up for the 20 dreary years The joy may be short-lived for the Dukes meet Willshire which has 20 straight wins and is rated fourth in the state, in tonight s feature

Springfield nosed out Dayton Wilbur Wright, 52 50 Friday and the difference was a 55-foot 4-inch field goal by senior guard Al Cohill just as the first-quarter buzzer sounded It wasn t a desperation throw, but a studied, two handed shot

Tecumseh Coach Frank Shanon who resigned last week to look for a better paying job has a lifetime record of 174 wins and 40 losses His teams won six straight Clark County League titles and the Troy Class A district the last two years He s rebuilding this year with a 13-5 record

Kentucky-Alabama Contest Will Settle Conference Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Mighty Kentucky, beaten only twice all season found itself in the unusual position today of being forced to fight it out right down to the end of the season for the Southeastern Conference championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament

Adolph Rupp's charges have three league games left to play and at the moment they re tied with Alabama for the lead, each with 9-2 marks

The Wildcats refused to play in the NCAA tourney last year because three of their top stars were declared ineligible This time though, Rupp is eager to play in the tourney

Kentucky playing without 6 7 Phil (Cookie) Grawemeyer who broke his leg last week whipped Vanderbilt last night 77 59 but Bama kept pace by slugging Louisville State 71 51

Their game at Lexington next Monday looms as the key to the championship

Bob Burrow was the big gun for the Wildcats scoring 31 points as Kentucky led from the start Bama likewise had little trouble leading all the way

Meanwhile in the Big Ten Iowa knocked Illinois out of the running with an 89-70 victory over the Illini The victory kept Iowa's chances alive They are in second place half a game behind Minnesota which edged Wisconsin 71 69

Iowa never was in trouble after the first few minutes and rushed to a 50 39 lead after a few minutes of the second half Minnesota however had its hands full and Chuck Mencel had to find the range with four seconds left to break a tie The Gophers seeking their first undisputed league title since 1919 were behind most of the way

In other Big Ten games none of which had any bearing on the championship Indiana whipped Purdue for the 13th straight time 75-62 Michigan State held on to outlast Northwestern 71 69, and Ohio State turned back Michigan 72 68

North Carolina State clinched at least a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference crown and the Wolfpack didn t even play Wake Forest dropped Maryland 75 71 The Teros' defeat means they can t win the league race outright

Tulsa kept alive its hopes of winning the Missouri Valley championship by routing Houston 69 59 while Virginia Tech snapped an 18 game losing streak and licked The Citadel 88 53 in the Southern Conference. The Gobblers, who hadn't won a game this season, might even get into the league tournament if they win another.

French Artist Seeks To Regain Valued Painting After 40 Years

PARIS (UP) — The noted artist, Fernand Leger, admitted recently that one of his paintings estimated at $20,000 might have been gone to a German art dealer to whom he was under contract some 40 years ago at a fee of about $1.50 a month.

"In 1913 I had a contract with Daniel Kahnweiler, to whom I sold all my works for 500 francs a month," Leger told the United Press.

Leger pondered the possibility that a painting, which he claims he never sold or gave away, might have been part of his output that automatically went to Kahnweiler under their contract.

The painting, a huge abstract work entitled "Contrastes de Formes" is presently in the possession of a Swiss art dealer, Leger claims the painting is still his, and he has filed a complaint with French police. They are investigating in an almost hopeless attempt to trace the channels through which the painting reached its present owner.

Leger, creator of the murals in the general assembly hall of the United Nations building in New York City, said he never sold or gave away the painting and that it is still his property.

"And you don't throw away 7,000,000 francs," he added.

"I frankly cannot remember what happened to this painting except that I am sure it is still mine. Maybe it was included in the works I sold to Kahnweiler under my contract. In that case it could have been sold by auction when his belongings were seized by the French state as enemy property during the first World War."

But Kahnweiler, who runs one of Paris' best known art galleries, galleries, is inclined to doubt this.

"My contract with Leger began on Oct. 25, 1913," he said. "The painting was completed before then, I believe. At least I have no recollection of it having been handed to me by Leger in accordance with the terms of his contract."

A Swiss art dealer, Siegried Rosengart, exhibited the work at Lucerne. It was through coincidence that Leger heard about the matter.

A Dutch buyer asked him for a very large painting. Leger did one, but, on seeing it, the buyer told him he preferred the one he had seen in the Lucerne exhibition. Leger immediately instructed his lawyer to file a complaint so an investigation could be opened.

Inspector Clot is not at all confident the police investigation will be successful since apparently the painting passed through several hands in the course of 40 years.

"Even if we tracked it down to a dishonest person who originally stole the work this could not be prosecuted because there is a three-year prescription for theft," Clot said.

This limit does not apply to a civil complaint, and it would be possible, if police did discover who originally stole the painting, for Leger to be awarded damages. But this result is rather remote.

In any case, Clot is certain that Rosengart is the painting's present legal owner and that he cannot be forced to return it unless every person concerned in the probably numerous transactions over 40 years pays back the money involved in each one.

And helps us to forget;

Learns Cold Weather Tactics in Alsaka

U.S. Army Trains for Arctic Warfare

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Reporter

BIG DELTA, Alaska (AP) — On some tomorrow the United States may have to fight a war in Alaska, a vast and empty land of blood-congealing cold and paralyzing winds.

Russians have occupied the arctic and subarctic much longer than Americans. They know how to live—and fight—there.

The United States is now engaged in a grim program to equip its military men with knowledge and machines that will enable them to live and fight as well; or perhaps better.

It's a tremendously costly undertaking. Modernizing Alaskan defenses alone will cost at least 600 million dollars by estimate of the Army Corps of Engineers.

THE UNDERTAKING is a brutal proving ground for both men and machines. Both are being tested at this big base in the flat valley of the Tanana River, where the winter can bring 20-below-zero cold and summer turns the land into water-soaked muskeg.

Moving about or fighting in the subarctic in summer is bad. There are clouds of insects. The muskeg is a vast sponge, on a fondation of permanently frozen ground, called permafrost. Troops sink to their waists. Vehicles bog down hopelessly. It gets hot. Temperatures as high as 100 degrees have been recorded at Fort Yukon, north of here.

But it is the winter that saps strength, immobilizes and kills.

Experts estimate that for each degree of temperature below zero the combat efficiency of a soldier decreases 2 per cent. Thus, there is a point where the effort of the soldier must be devoted entirely to keeping alive. He has nothing left for fighting.

THE ARMY IS attempting, by training and by new equipment, to modify this impact of cold on the soldier's efficiency.

The primary lesson taught the newly arrived student at the arctic indoctrination school is that man can live in the worst weather the frigid zone can produce—if he has the right clothing, shelter, food and technique.

No man ever is allowed to venture out alone. But in small groups students travel out from the warm barracks and classrooms of Big Delta by ski and snowshoes onto the barrens and into the woods.

They learn that loose-fitting layers of clothes, with air spaces between layers and within the cloth itself, keep in body warmth. The same goes for the 10-man tents used in the field; the outside layer is water-repellent, with an inside lining, loosely attached to the outside, to form insulation.

THEY LEARN TOO that cold can be unbearable, even with the warmest clothing when it is accompanied by wind. At 60 below zero with a 5 m.p.h. wind, the skin freezes in one minute. But at only 25 below zero with a 25 m.p.h. wind, exposed flesh freezes in the same time. At 18 below zero with 35 m.p.h wind, travel on foot is impossible.

Vehicles become problems in the extreme cold. Special lubricants must be used. Steel is made brittle by subzero temperature. Transmissions shatter. Currently, the Army has in use only two types of over-snow vehicles, the Weasel and the Otter. Both are track-laying, like tanks, and both travel either on land or water. The difference is essentially in size.

Some explosives become cranky and uncertain in bitter cold. Dynamite and other nitroglycerin explosives freeze about 20 below, becoming temperamental and dangerous to handle.

FIRING TABLES for artillery must be changed in extreme cold to compensate for a difference in propellent charge effects. Blasts also cause ice fog which shrouds gun positions in mist, hampering sighting of positions.

Even the usually simple process of finding your way becomes a major undertaking in the arctic wastes. For there are vast areas, without terrain features for land marks, and magnetic compasses are virtually useless in the shadow of the magnetic pole.

Tests are now being made with portable gyrocompasses in which needles are held at true north by gyroscopes, and with a form of location indicator which informs a driver how far he has to go and in what direction he is heading.

Building and supply operations also run into monumental problems in the Far North. Labor and materials come high. Shipping costs reflect the necessity for long hauls through often dangerous waters.

THREATEN STRIKE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A strike of some 900 members of Local 1466, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, is threatened here if no contract agreement is reached by March 1. Negotiations continued today at the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. The union represents employes at the Walnut, Picway and Poston plants and at substations in Columbus. A union official said members want a five per cent wage increase.

FACES CHECK CHARGE

CLEVELAND (AP)—Don Black, a former Cleveland Indians pitcher who won a no-hitter against Philadelphia in 1946, was arrested last night on bad check charges, police of suburban East Cleveland said. Black, who hurled for the Athletics from 1943 to 1945 and pitched for Cleveland from 1946 to 1949, was released after posting $100 bond, police said. A warrent, sworn by Walter Konjura, proprietor of an east side tavern, charged Black with passing two bad checks there in January. The checks allegedly totaled $45.

Chronic Traffic Menace Called 'Social Misfit'

DETROIT (UP) — A man who has studied problem drivers for more than 20 years takes issue with the popular belief that mild-mannered persons often turn into reckless menaces when they slide behind the steering wheel of an automobile.

Alan Canty, executive director of the psychopathic clinic of Detroit's recorder's court, said it just doesn't happen.

Any problem driver is also a social misfit when he's not behind the steering wheel, according to Canty. The symptoms might just be harder to find when the problem driver is away from the car, he explained.

Canty has studied drivers since the early 1930's. Since October, 1936, he has headed Detroit's special psychopathic traffic division. The division, until recently the only one of its kind in the nation, studies problem drivers brought before traffic judges.

"The chronic violator is a social problem child," Canty said. "His traffic misbehavior is but a symptom of his personality maladjustment.

"The same factors which cause marital unhappiness, divorce and separations, frequent job changes, economic distress and unhealthy recreational activities contribute to his contempt for the social and legal conventions as exemplified by his chronic defiance of the traffic laws.

"If automobiles had never been invented, most of our violation-prone drivers would still be recognizable as problem children in our society through their inability to conform to the social and legal conventions.

"The automobile has by no means created a new and distinct kind of problem child who is a problem child only when he is behind the wheel."

BUILDING NEEDS

WASHINGTON (INS) — Construction in Washington of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, which will be the second largest church in the United States, will require 250,000 cubic feet of stone, 170,000 bags of cement and 25,000,000 bricks.

POPS--IF I'M WRONG, THUMB SCREWS AND THE CHINESE WATER TORTURE WILL BE TOO GOOD FOR ME! BUT I'M SO SURE I'M RIGHT, POPS--MAVIS AND LEO MAYBANK THINK YOU'RE A RICH MAN--
BUT I'M NOT, JULIE--I GUESS EVERYBODY KNOWS THAT. HOW COULD THEY EVER GET THAT NOTION?
THEY'RE NEWCOMERS TO DEVON. PROBABLY THEY HEARD THAT YOU SOLD YOUR INTEREST IN A BIG ENAMEL FACTORY. YOU KNOW HOW THE TRUTH GETS DISTORTED IN A SMALL TOWN.
THEN WHAT YOU'RE SAYING IS THAT MAVIS IS MARRYING ME BECAUSE SHE THINKS I'M A REAL RICH MAN--?
I'M SURE SHE'S FOND OF YOU, DARLING--WHO COULD HELP THAT? BUT MARRYING YOU IS STRICTLY A BUSINESS PROPOSITION!

ACTUALLY, I DON'T EVEN KNOW WHAT I CAN DO WHEN I CATCH UP TO HIM!
MAYBE I CAN REASON WITH HIM!

Judy, I saw you with your boy friend, Amy. When are you going to introduce me?
Do you think I should, Marge?
He's good looking, but he isn't my type.
Perhaps I will. But remember, I saw him first.
Say! Maybe he's got a pal. Couldn't you promote a foursome?
You mean you'd go on a blind date?
Sure. I've heard it's a way to get your eyes opened.

GEE, I WOULDN'T FEEL SO LONELY IF ZERO COULD BE HERE AT PRIMROSE HALL WITH ME--BUT HE CAN'T, BECAUSE IT'S AGAINST THE RULES--
COURSE, I KNOW MISS CALLIE IS TAKIN' TERRIBLE GOOD CARE OF ZERO, AN' MR. KING PRIDE IS PAYIN' A LOT O' MONEY TO HAVE ME GO TO THIS SCHOOL--SO I JUST GOTTA STAND IT--
